USD 365 to consider staffing security officer

Board says security needs to go beyond limiting access at facilities

BY DANE HICKS THE ANDERSON COUNTY REVIEW

GARNETT – School board members in USD 365 will investigate costs and administration involved hiring armed protection for school buildings after a discussion at the school board meeting Thursday.

The topic came about after the February 14 shooting at a Florida high school that killed 17 students and teachers and injured 17 more, one of the latest in a spate of school shootings since the early 1990s across the country.

Superintendent Don Blome told board members the district had taken a number of steps in recent years toward better securing its facilities, but he wanted to bring up the topic of a school resource or security officer for the board's consideration.

"We've put some access systems in our school and crisis plans and those types of things," Blome said, but he noted a former grant-funded resource officer program in the district high school from the Anderson County Sheriff's Department ended several years ago. Blome said he wanted to open the topic for discussion as to the district possibly hiring its own security or re-establishing a program with the sheriff's department.

"I don't know what the cost might be," Blome told the board.

Board member Dwight Nelson supported staffing security personnel, saying current events made more attention to security issues paramount.

"I think we've come to that point," Nelson said.

Patron Scott Rogers commented on a Gardner-based company with which he was familiar which sold emergency kits for classrooms with fingerprint key locks which contained defensive items like vests designating school staff and high-powered strobes that could blind an intruder. Those kit boxes, including extra boxes which could store firearms, could also be monitored by centralized software to identify the room in which a box had been opened.

There was no discussion of the Hey, Spring... Are you coming, or what?

Arctic pressure keeps delaying Springtime in the central states region

BY DANE HICKS THE ANDERSON COUNTY REVIEW

MANHATTAN – Anderson County and most of Kansas is about 2-3 weeks behind last year's seasonal weather schedule, and that's throwing a wrench in gardening and some farming plans.

Assistant State Climatologist Mary Knapp said last week that after last weekend's cold snap, temperatures should be warming up for the rest of this week and Rainfall is still an issue in most of Kansas, Knapp said, due to Kansas' typical share of Gulf moisture being chased to the east by high pressure zones of cold which have been dipping out of the arctic for much of the winter and early spring. As a consequence, we just haven't been as warm or as wet.

And temperatures have been varying widely according to the amount of cloud cover, Knapp said. Last Thursday, with a rescheduled Garnett track meet in Basehor-

Bradford Pear blooms were holding solid after Friday night's freezing plunge to 20 degrees.

beyond. "The 8-15 day forecast looks pretty good," Knapp said Friday. "We're looking for more seasonal temperatures, but unfortunately not a lot of moisture."

Linwood, ACHS athletes enjoyed temperatures that hit 70 degrees. Meanwhile, with another rain-date rescheduled boys baseball game against Eudora in Garnett, temps only hit 43. It's been worse in Western Kansas, where Elkhart in one week had a high of 87 and a

Garnett Rec Center would operate 24 hours under plan

BY DANE HICKS THE ANDERSON COUNTY REVIEW

GARNETT – A plan by Garnett City Manager Chris Weiner would make the Garnett Rec Center a 24-hour facility, hopefully expanding its member base.

Weiner broached the possibility several weeks ago to city commissioners in ongoing discussions about the city's technology status, noting a keycard access and camera monitoring system would be all that would be needed to expand the rec center's scheduled offerings.

Currently the center hosts about 110 paid memberships, a number that drops back somewhat as summer approaches and users take on outside activities, according to rec center staff. Weiner said he thinks expanding the hours could be a way to increase membership.

"People have said they'd use it if it was open hours that fit their particular schedules," Weiner said. "I think if you're able to offer that then you can bring in some more members." He said the center almost covers its operating expenses with its present membership.

Costs for a magnetic card lock system would run around $3,000, Weiner said. He said he was in the process of finding prices for video monitoring systems capable of adding that component to the facility. He said after those costs are assembled he plans to bring the issue to city commissioners for their consideration.

Weiner said magnetic card access systems had a number

APRIL 4, 2018

Thomas Paul McKale, resident of Downers Grove since 1950, died April 4 at the age of 100. He was vibrant through the last day of his life, and died peacefully in his sleep.

Born in Olkmulkie Oklahoma (then known as "Indian Territory"), Tom was raised in Garnett, Kansas. He graduated from the University of Kansas with a degree in Electrical Engineering. After graduation, he worked at Commonwealth Edison in Chicago, where he met, and in 1941 married Mary Jane (Peggy) Erbe.

Tom enlisted in the Navy as a commissioned officer in 1943, and served until 1946. He was stationed in the Pacific, on the USS St. George, a 'sea plane tender' vessel.

Tom and Peggy raised four daughters, Mary Ann, Patricia, Barbara and Maureen(Richard Wilkie). His wife, Peggy, and daughter, Mary Ann, preceded him in death. He is survived by three daughters, nine grandchildren, four great-grandchildren.

He retired from the Edison Company after 38 years. He and Peggy established a family retreat cabin on the Wisconsin River in Merrimac, Wisconsin.

Throughout his life he was an active member in St. Joseph Parish, and an enthusiastic singer in the Resurrection Choir. He was a Charter, 1st degree member of The Knight of Columbus. Church functions, bridge parties, American Legion events, Knights of Columbus projects, office picnics in their back yard, and investment club meetings filled his after-work hours. His goal of visiting every state in the United States was achieved. His interest in learning and experiencing new things took him to study at MIT, and then to Japan, Europe, the British Isles and the Middle East.

Tom McKale was a fount of stability. His relatives of all ages will remember well his gentle kindness, unobtrusive humor, and generosity. Tom saw more in his centenarian lifetime than many could hope; he set an admirable example of a life well lived.

10 years ago: Crop prices reaching record highs but only due to rough crop season

10 years ago...
Crop prices across the Midwest are reaching record highs, and local farmers are balancing those sky-high prices against higher input costs to find a profit in between. According to Shannon Blocker, Anderson County K-State Extension Agent, all commodities are exceptionally high right now because of high demand and low supply. Corn, and particularly wheat, had a rough year here last year, according to Blocker, but other countries outside of the U.S. that provide part of the crop supply also didn't have good harvests. Corn has hit an all time high at $5.40 per bushel and wheat is approaching $11 per bushel according to Blocker.

ical condition in a Lawrence Hospital as of early this morning after he apparently tried to commit suicide outside Ottawa's Wal Mart Super Center. Ottawa Police Lieutenant Ron Puterbaugh said Devon L. Sims, 53 of Garnett, entered Wal Mart about 12:30 p.m. Thursday, pur-

It's been 25 years since 57 tornadoes caused six deaths, 74 injuries, and caused over $16 million in property damage. That year tornadoes occurred in the normally low frequency months of March, September, October, and November. Today is the opening day of tornado season and this is a reminder that tornadoes can, and do, happen in any month of the year.

Soil sustains life, but not every farm produces good crops. Some soil isn't suitable for a house site, just as some soil can't support a highway, bridge, or large building. Now that county soil surveys are here, and more are coming, guesswork or hope doesn't have to enter into the decision involving purchasing or use of land. Farmers, assessors, appraisers, planners, engineers, builders, or others can know exactly what's below the soil surface and how a piece of land will perform for the purpose they have in mind.

A commercial course to teach pupils about operating a business was introduced four years ago at Garnett High School by Professor W.T. Johnson. The class has continued to grow in interest and this year there are 42 pupils taking the class which offers shorthand, typewriting, and bookkeeping. Six typewriters are in service and the pupils have an average speed of 42 words per minute.

KART races at local track April 14-15

The weekend of April 14 -15 the city of Garnett welcomes the first Kart road race of the season. The Garnett KART Club, which has been hosting races since 1957, will once again bring racing to the North Lake Park road course. The racing schedule runs from 8 am to 4 pm both Saturday and Sunday.

For over 50 years the Garnett KART Club has been hosting both road and sprint track races, including 3 national events. Each racing event garners 125 to 135 entries and involves people from many states across the country.

KART racing is a great spectator sport. The North Lake Park is unique in that it provides a free viewing site on the south side of the road course (near park entrance), or for only $20 for adults, this pass is good for two days and the family can access the pit area located on the east side of Lake Garnett for a truly "awesome" view of the road course. In the pits you can watch the crews work on their karts and learn more about this motor sport, and then watch the racers as they sprint down the west side straight-away exceeding 100 mph, maneuver the chicane made of hay bales, cross the dam and, fight nose to tail for position around tight corners surrounding Lake Garnett.

The likes of Jamie McMurray and Kevin Harvick, both well-known in the NASCAR circuit, raced at Lake Garnett. KART racing has sharpened the skills of such racers as Mario Andretti, Al Unser, Terry LaBonte and Ricky Rudd.

The real heroes of this sport for us, however, are the members of the Garnett Kart Club, who have given years of their time and energy to improving race facilities, promoting these events and bringing hundreds of racers and fans to our community. We invite you to show your support and admiration of their dedication by attending the races on April 14 - 15.

For more information about KART Racing in Garnett, please contact Bryan at (785) 304-9701 or Mike at (785) 448-8899

Latest find is a kid's ring over 60 years old

What a nifty little ring! I recently found it at my favorite 1870's site. Yes, I know it's not an old or valuable ring, but it is certainly a collectible one.

This is a Junior Fire Marshal ring from the Hartford Fire Insurance Company most likely from the late 1940's or early 1950's.

It still retains a lot of its red paint after being under ground for all these years.

It has a beautiful, large, many pointed buck (stag) on the front. On the sides it clearly shows an embossed Fireman's hat and tools. It is marked on the back of each band Hartford Fire Insurance Co. It is an adjustable ring (by bending the bands), and it is also marked identically on the inside of the bands.

As I've stated many times, you never know in archaeology what you are going to dig up next.

Communion is a reflection of Christ's sacrifice

Communion has always been, for me, a very special part of the church service. The LORD's supper is an act of worship taking the form of a ceremonial meal, in which Christ's servants share bread and wine to commemorate Christ's death and to celebrate the new covenant they enjoy with God.

In the old covenant the Passover meal was a memorial celebration of Israel's deliverance from Egypt. In the original Passover the blood of the lamb protected the Israelite's from death. We read in Exodus 12:23 concerning the night before the Exodus, "For the LORD will pass through to strike the Egyptians, and when he sees the blood on the lintel and on the two door posts, the LORD will pass over the door and will not allow the destroyer to enter your houses to strike you."

The blood represented safety for the Hebrews from the death plague that would strike the Egyptians. In Matthew 26:27-28 Jesus, introduces the new covenant when he says, "Take eat; this is my body." "And he took a cup, and when he had given thanks he gave it to them saying, "Drink of it all of you, for this is my blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins."

Jesus takes two elements of the Passover meal, unleavened bread and wine, to express his new work of redemption. Matthew's gospel includes the phrase, "for the forgiveness of sins." Certainly we partake of communion as a remembrance of Christ's death.

However for me equally important are the words, "for the forgiveness of sins." These are Jesus own words and represent what Jesus died for. As I wait for the elements to be passed sometimes the weight of my sins becomes heavy on my shoulders. When I have received and partake I feel cleansed and renewed. Calvin taught that, "while the bread and wine remained unchanged the Spirit raises the believer through faith to enjoy the presence of Christ in a way that is glorious and real though indescribable." Thus my feeling of cleansing and renewal, my sins removed from me.

Concerning the new covenant God says in Jeremiah 31:34b, "For I will forgive their iniquity, and will remember their sins no more." There in lies the promise of eternal life for the Christian.

Pair of AC golfers finish in the top 7 at Burlington

BY KEVIN GAINES THE ANDERSON COUNTY REVIEW

BURLINGTON - Last Thursday the AC golfers traveled to Burlington for the Burlington Invitational and came away with Josh Martin finishing fourth and Carson Powelson in seventh.

Martin's only birdie came on the 457 yard par 5, 14th hole. Martin's consistent play netted a 41 on the front 9 and a 40 on the back nine.

If not for faltering down the stretch, Martin was in line for a second place finish. Martin shot two over on the 15th and 16th hole and bogeyed the 17th and 18th to slip down the leaderboard.

Powelson, on the other hand, was in second place after the front nine with a 39.

It was the back nine that proved to be costly for Powelson, over par on 7 of the 9 holes including four over on the 11th hole.

Golfer's Zach Barnes (102) finished in 25th and Nick Lybarger (144) finished 40th overall.

Easton Reynolds of Yates Center shot a 71 to run away with the title, seven strokes better than 2nd place.

Burlington won the team title with a score of 346, the Bulldogs finished fifth with a score of 411.

THE ANDERSON COUNTY REVIEW 4-10-18 / Photos Submitted
Above - Richard and Dorothy Miller will be awarded the 2018 Outstanding Couple award at the annual Historical Society banquet. Below - Chautauqua at Woodlawn Park in Garnett. A history of Chautauqua will be given at the banquet.

'Dear Mr. Walker' on display at the Community Gallery

Now on display at the Community Gallery of the Garnett Public Library are letters to and from Mr. Maynard Walker.

This correspondence offers insight into the history, relationships, and connections which formed the Walker Art Collection.

Mr. Walker was very influential in the artistic society of New York but had a special place in his heart for our small town.

With the help of Mrs. Dorothy Archer, librarian, and others, Mr. Walker put together an impressive gallery of art dedicated to his mother for us to enjoy.

Letters on display include items from; Thomas Hart Benton, Edward G. Robinson, Grant Wood, William Allen White, and John Steuart Curry to name a few.

Please take a few minutes to read the correspondence between artists, celebrities, and Mr. Walker in this exhibit entitled "DEAR MR. WALKER" and learn how he worked to make the Mary Bridget McCauliffe Walker Collection a reality.

Miller's will earn award at the 50th Annual Anderson County Historical Society Banquet

Richard and Dorothy Miller will be honored as the 2018 Outstanding Couple at the 50th Annual Anderson County Historical Society Banquet on Thursday, April 19, 2018. Richard and Dorothy are both lifelong citizens of Anderson County. Richard was born and raised southwest of Garnett, in Washington Township, and Dorothy was born in Iola, Kansas but lived and attended all of her school years in Welda.

After Richard and Dorothy were married, they lived in Kansas City, Kansas for a few years before moving to the farm southwest of Garnett in 1964, where they continue to live. They raised their three children on the farm. They are now retired from farming, and Dorothy is retired from her nursing career. They rent their farm and pasture.

Richard's Anderson County heritage goes back 114 years, when his maternal great grandparents, (Benjamin) came from Osage County to Anderson County. His paternal great-great grandfather (Miller) came from Ohio in 1860, when his great grandfather was four years old.

Dorothy's paternal grandfather, Charles Whipps, was born five miles south of Garnett in a log cabin in 1865. Richard and Dorothy live in the neighborhood where their ancestors owned land and lived in the 1800s and early 1900s.

Richard is a lifetime member of the Anderson County Historical Society and has been a board member for several years. He is a supporter of the museum where he spends time volunteering and updating information.

Dorothy is also a member of the Anderson County Historical Society and volunteers at the museum.

Richard and Dorothy are long time members of the Welda United Methodist Church and worked with the disaster program within the church. Other volunteer involvement includes:

serving on the Anderson County Extension Council, members of the Community Emergency Response Team (CERT), Friends of the Garnett Library, several agricultural organizations, and Spirit of Christmas committee.

Kristie Kinney, President, states that Richard and Dorothy are both very deserving of this award. Richard serves as Vice-President of the historical society. He works tirelessly at the museum organizing displays and files, building and ground repairs, logging donations into the museum software, assisting with research requests, and many other tasks that need taken care of. Dorothy volunteers as a museum docent during our tour season. Richard and Dorothy both help on our cleaning days in preparation of our opening day each season at both the Harris House and the museum.

The 50th Annual Anderson County Historical Society Banquet will be held on Thursday, April 19, 2018 at 6:30 p.m. at the Anderson County Junior/Senior High School Commons Area.

Deborah Barker will provide the program on the history of the Chautauqua's in rural America in the late 19th century and early 20th century.

Deadra Jones will cater the dinner.

Tickets are on sale now from any officer or director for $14.00. The deadline to purchase tickets is April 14, 2018.

Current officers and directors are: Kristie Kinney, Richard Miller, Ruth Lee Hastert, Terry Solander, Shirley Roeckers, Zella Teter, Ivan Mader, Paul Phares and Kenny Kellstadt.

Christian Church
Easter Service Darren McGhee gave the communion meditation on the song "The Potter's Hand" and how powerful the lyrics are; "Take me, use me, guide me, walk beside me. I give my life to the potter's hand." Chase Riebel's message was titled "Resurrection Freedom!". He referenced many verses in Romans about how the truth of Jesus can set us free. Free from our slavery of sin, and to become a slave of God. The penalty for our sin was paid in full by Jesus. Matthew 28:1-10 is about Jesus' resurrection and how he conquered death by his sacrifice. So always speak truth and share the news of Jesus with everyone!

CEF
The Crest Education Foundation, a 501(c)(3) charitable organization, is under new leadership and is planning a membership drive/fundraiser starting April 9th. They hope the Crest community will join them for a Flocking Good Time as they send a friendly flock of flamingos around town in hopes to drum up interest and raise some funds to benefit USD 479. Be on the lookout Colony, Kincaid, Lone Elm and Welda. Visit their Facebook page at Facebook.com/cresteducation-foundation for more info.

The Crest Education Foundation was founded in 2002 to solicit, receive and provide resources for the benefit and support of Crest Unified School District 479, above and beyond what the State of Kansas traditionally supplies.

Individuals, organizations or businesses can assist the Foundation through a number of funding options to benefit students, staff and patrons. With the community's support, the Foundation will be able to provide financial support while working in cooperation with USD 479 to preserve, maintain and improve public education. Contributions to the Foundation may be tax deductible to the extent allowable by law.

City Council
Reports made at the Feb. 23 city council meeting were: fixing some of the streets which will try to be done by Tim Dietrich, superintendent; All is good with Water Works committee; Westar wants at least a week's notice before they need to come and install a light pole was reported by Dietrich, city clerk's report was approved. All unpaid bills would be handled by following the usual shut-off procedure.

Garrett Nordstrom met with the council for the close-out of the CDBG for the sewer improvements. He reported everything is concluded and all bills have been paid.

Carrie Nelson, KCAMP met with the council. She explained what an insurance pool is and presented a proposal for Colony's liability insurance. Mayor Hobbs presented the renewal proposal from Iola Insurance for EMC. Decision tabled until a work comp bid is received from KMIT.

It was reported of trash piled up outside Josh Robb's door for at least two weeks. Council instructed the clerk to send a letter instructing the trash to be taken care of within a week or he will be cited by the nuisance ordinance. Phyllis Gettler, City Clerk presented a list of possible auditors for the city. Discussion was held on the two nearest ones. It was moved to hire Schlotterbeck and Burns, Chanute as the city auditor and to prepare the budget. Approved 3-0 vote Phyllis Gettler questioned why the city was paying 1.5% county sales tax on the residents water sales but not collecting it from residents. City Attorney Jess Randall said that if city is paying; we need to collect it. NOTE: It was later discovered by the city treasurer that resident and ag water sales are exempt from all sales tax and we should stop sending it in. Discussion was held on passing a petition to place on the November ballot a question as to adding a city sales tax to all sales in the city. The state has placed a lid on the levy limit and a sales tax would bring in some extra income for the city to continue to operate. City Attorney Randall will research what needs to be done and prepare a petition.

A Building Permit for Nathan Schmidt was presented. Oswald explained that where they want to build is closer to the property line than the 10 ft. required by the zoning ordinance. They have shortened up the building to make fit. Due to Schmidt being Oswald's son in law she has a conflict of interest and cannot vote. No quorum. Decision tabled. Mayor Hobbs informed council they are receiving complaints that the community room is still dirty even though it was cleaned the night before use. Council approved canceling the contract with the current cleaner. There are two others who are possible for cleaning in the future. Council requested the City Marshall to do an inspection and if necessary issue a citation on a young nuisance. Bids were presented from Red Barn and Countryside Veterinary for a Dog Clinic which was held March 10.

Spring Sports Review

Lancer track & field look to build off last season's success

BY KEVIN GAINES THE ANDERSON COUNTY REVIEW

COLONY - Last year was successful on many levels for the Crest Lancers track squads. As a team, the Crest girls finished 2nd at league and on an individual level they sent 3 athletes to the state meet.

First year head coach Zach Mason is expecting a return trip for all three of them.

Junior Camryn Strickler will do the 100 and 300 meter hurdles, senior Caleb Stephens in high jump and Billy Lyda will hope to return to State in the 100, 200 and 400 meter sprints.

When asked of his team's weaknesses, Coach Mason immediately brought up the lack of numbers.

"I would say our main weakness is depth. On the boys side we have no juniors. And on the girls side we have no freshmen and two seniors."

The girls only have 8 members out and the guys have 13.

Conversely the strength is that the people they do have competing, they have the talent and potential to make up for the lack of numbers.

"Our goals for this year is to improve upon last year," Mason said. "Sending the people back to State that qualified last year and also send some first time qualifiers."

Bulldogs track looks to continue the string of success sending athletes to State

BY KEVIN GAINES THE ANDERSON COUNTY REVIEW

GARNETT - It's been 20 years leading the Bulldogs and coach Mike Sibley has the same expectations every year out of his track teams, "Win league and get as many athletes to State as possible," Sibley stated.

Sibley states that the Pioneer League is getting more and more relevant when it comes to track and field, he knows that league titles don't come easy.

"The competition will be at the highest level that is ever has been for the league championship," Sibley added.

The Bulldog women once had a stranglehold on the league, winning seven consecutive titles before coming up short the past couple of seasons.

Last year the girls finished 4th in league and the boys finished 5th.

"Numbers are up on both teams, but we will be young and need to step up to the 4A high school level of competition," Sibley stated.

It's mostly a statement towards an impressive freshman class that was very successful last year in 8th grade, but obviously now that they will be in high school it's a huge leap in the competition level.

Helping mold this young group of talent will be seniors Owen Lutz, Layne Lutz, Averil Wilson, Eddie Gruver, Taten LeBlanc, Katelyn Phelps and Emma Porter. Their senior leadership will go a long way to help this team be successful this year and in the upcoming years as well.

Wilson is the top returning performer from a year ago, qualifying for State in both the 800 meter and 1600 meter runs finishing 7th and 9th respectively.

Joining Wilson as returning letter winners for the girls is senior Layne Lutz (throws), juniors Paige Rupp (distance) and Zekerria Dreiver (jumps) along with sophomore Brooklyn Schettler (jumps).

For the guys, Lutz (distance) is the lone senior letter winner returning. He will be joined by juniors Ryland Porter (distance), Seth Threewitt (sprints) Logan Allen (jumps) and Will Mechnig (throws) and sophomore Dallas Higgenbotham (throws).

Viking track lacks numbers, striving for State

BY KEVIN GAINES THE ANDERSON COUNTY REVIEW

RICHMOND - The Central Heights Viking track teams aren't necessarily focused on team results but not because of the lack of quality athletes, they are lacking the quantity needed for high finishes as a team.

To put it in perspective, the girls only have 4 athletes out for track. The guys numbers are better, but with 10 upperclassmen and 11 underclassmen, a lack of experience will be a detriment as well.

Michael Carey has been a coach for 15 seasons, so he's seen a little bit of everything and knows that from year to year team goals can change, but individually the goal of a track athlete is to qualify for the state meet.

The team is heavy on distance runners and field events, so Carey is looking for those two areas to focus on when it comes to making it to State.

A handful of athletes are competing in the 800 meter, 1600 meter and 3200 meter runs. They include senior Kyle Cardin and sophomores Caleb Myer, Alex Cannady, Mason McCurry and Tyler Stevenson.

Senior Coyd Gardner will throw the shot put and discus. Junior Mason Roberts and Bulldogs new coach likes team's work ethic early on

BY KEVIN GAINES THE ANDERSON COUNTY REVIEW

GARNETT - It is always a slightly uneasy feeling for a team that is preparing for a new head coach and all the uncertainties that surround it, but according to first-year head coach Travis Persinger his team is showing great enthusiasm and work ethic heading into the season.

That isn't always the easiest thing to do coming off a disappointing season. Last year the Anderson County Bulldogs finished the season just 4-15 after dropping their regional opener to Osawatimie.

Seniors Brady Rockers, Kyle Lamb, Matt Louk and Austin Akes will be missed.

Rockers led the Bulldogs with a .441 average and was second on the team with 13 runs batted in (rbi's) on the year.

Lamb was second on the squad with a .357 average and was the team's most consistent pitcher. Lamb appeared in 11 games on the mound, picking up one win, zero losses and 2 saves while posting a solid 3.35 earned run average (ERA).

A solid group of seniors will be relied on heavily to help turn the program around.

Austin Peine (pitcher/1st base), Cole Denny (pitcher/3rd base), Hayden Hermann (1st base), Tyler Winterringer (outfield), Tyler Seacrest (pitcher/outfield) and Austin Ewert (pitcher/outfield/infield) are all a part of the seniors that the underclassmen will look to for leadership.

As always when a new regime steps in, there is always a learning curve. Because of the unknown, Persinger is looking to see who will step up.

"I feel like all of the guys are going to be key players," Persinger stated. "I have been impressed by the work ethic the guys have been showing."

Persinger feels like each game it could be someone different leading the way.

"We are wanting to compete in every game and give each team their toughest fight," Persinger stated.

It is often the little things that lead to a team being competitive and pesky.

"Hitters putting the ball in play and putting pressure on the defense. Pitchers filling the zone up with strikes to challenge the other team and let the defense make the plays behind them," Persinger said describing the little things that can lead to better results on the field.

It isn't always the easiest thing to do, but Persinger just wants his guys to, "Trust the process."

Youthful Lady Bulldog softball team still has much to learn

BY KEVIN GAINES THE ANDERSON COUNTY REVIEW

GARNETT - It is the second season leading the Anderson County Lady Bulldogs softball program for head coach Jenna Catloth but she still expects growing pains as she has a young roster coupled with a tough schedule.

Last year in Catloth's first season, the Bulldogs finished 5-14 and lost in the first round of Regionals to Burlington.

Despite beating some teams that Catloth described as "competitive", last year wasn't quite the season the Lady Bulldogs envisioned when the season began.

After losing a handful of seniors, Miranda Akes, Alexey Lickteig, Katelyn Alley, Michaela Laiter and Sam Nickell, the Bulldogs welcome an astounding 16 freshmen to the team this year.

Considering there are only 8 sophomores, juniors and seniors combined, it is without question that a few of the freshmen will be expected to be thrown into the fire and gain considerable playing time.

Because of the uncertainties, Coach Catloth knows it will be a learning season for many.

"We expect every one of our girls who step on the field to be a key player," Catloth said matter-of-factly.

Helping develop the young squad is assistant coaches John Wendt and Terry Messenger.

The upperclassmen that will be relied on to lead the way is the lone senior Gabby Spring and returning junior letter winners Ashley Lickteig, Abbie Fritz and Holli Miller.

Sophomores Lilly Spring and Autumn Ewert lettered last year as freshmen and are expected to take a huge step forward after gaining that experience.

"This is another rebuilding year for us," Catloth stated. "Last year, with a new coaching staff, we had the girls learning and relearning fundamentals."

Catloth went on to say, "We saw great improvement that isn't always reflected in a score or overall record. Our goal is to build on last year's successes."

sophomore Landen Compton will give the Vikings the greatest chance to compete in sprint and field events.

Roberts will run the 100, do triple jump and long jump.

Compton will do the 110 high hurdles and 300 intermediate hurdles.

For the girls, junior Megan

Speaks will run the 100, 200, throw the javelin and compete in long jump.

Sophomore Cyla Gardner and Hannah Jumet will both throw the discus in addition to Gardner competing in shot put and Jumet in discus.

Experienced Viking baseball squad looks to win league

BY KEVIN GAINES THE ANDERSON COUNTY REVIEW

RICHMOND - The Central Heights Vikings finished 10-12 a season ago, but a couple of key losses will make it hard to improve unless some of the underclassmen step up.

It isn't always ideal when you finish just below .500 but also have to replace one of your most productive hitters and without a doubt your best pitcher.

That is exactly the uphill climb head coach Jason Brown faces in his 15th year as a coach.

Gone to graduation is Ethan Shields, Wyatt Thompson and James Jones.

Shields had an unbelievable performance last year for the Vikings in regionals, coming up just one batter short of a perfect game in a 4-0 victory over Osage City in the first round. Shields still finished with a no-hitter after walking a batter with 2 outs in the last inning.

Coach Brown will be relying on his returning starters to lead the way.

Five juniors and seniors return that were major contributors last year, leaving plenty of opportunities for the younger guys on the team.

The team has four sophomores and 6 freshmen to round out the roster.

Seth Burroughs was 2nd-team all league last year and Bryce Sommer was honorable mention.

Brown is waiting to see who is going to step up and make the plays when they are needed.

"Our pitchers are going to have to throw strikes and trust that the defense will make the plays," Brown stated.

"We have some good experience coming back," Brown added. "Our goal is to win league and win regionals."

Vikings softball team looking for encore to last season's trip to State

BY KEVIN GAINES THE ANDERSON COUNTY REVIEW

RICHMOND - Coach Lea Stenger is hoping her girls can build off the momentum of last season as her squad went 15-9 and won the regional championship, earning a trip to State for the first time in the history of the Central Heights Viking's softball program.

It was a breakthrough after the Vikings had reached the regional championship numerous times in the past but couldn't capitalize on their opportunities.

Three key players graduated from last year's team. Demeree Pendleton, Tess Cotter and Megan Davis.

Pendleton hit .394 and drove in 17 runs, both good for second on the team.

Cotter hit .338 and also drove in 17 and Davis hit .318 with a team-high 19 runs batted in.

The biggest loss will be the arm of Davis. She finished the season 11-7 with a 3.25 earned run average and was also the pitcher that started the regional and state games for the Vikings.

Crest baseball lacking experience

COLONY - It's never easy beginning a new program and it can be especially difficult in a small school that lacks the numbers to develop experience and that is exactly what first year head coach Roland Weir is dealing with leading the Crest Lancers in their first season of playing baseball.

The Three Rivers League is competitive from top to bottom. St. Paul, Yates Center, Southeast Cherokee, Uniontown and Pleasanton all should pose a challenge based on the number of returning players.

This will be the first season for Pleasanton as well.

Coach Weir stated, "I believe every member of the team will be a key player this year as we do not have great numbers out right now."

"Our strengths will be our work ethic, hustle and a group willing to learn and play the game the right way," Weir added.

Without a doubt the biggest hurdle the Lancers need to overcome is a lack of numbers.

There are currently just 11 players listed on the active roster.

Weir said the goals will remain the same every year regardless of the makeup of the team.

"The goal will always be to win the Three Rivers League and go to State year in and year out. The key is to show continual improvement throughout the year," Weir said.

Lady Lancers look to jumpstart program

COLONY - The Crest Lady Lancers are full of upperclassmen, but in their first season as a softball program they are lacking the experience playing as a high school team.

Casey Cook will take the task of working out on the kinks of a new program and at the same time be competitive on the field.

The biggest goal for Coach Cook is to keep her girls from getting injured, especially since they have just 11 members on the team.

"We just need to stay healthy so we can be competitive in our first ever season as a softball program," Cook stated.

Some of the key members that Coach Cook is counting on to contribute this season are seniors Makayla Jones (P/1B), juniors Cassie Brown (2B, OF) and Regan Godderz (SS, P), to go along with sophomore Ridley Black (P, 1B, SS) and freshman Aubrey Holloran (C,P).

Cook is looking forward to the challenge.

"I'm from Colony and proud to be back at the school helping to get the softball program off to a great start," Cook stated.

The new war on drugs

In 2015, the Department of Defense estimated that more than 1.1 million Americans had died over the course of all U.S. wars from the Revolutionary War to the current War on Terror. According to the Centers for Disease Control, between 2000 and 2016 over 600,000 Americans have died from a drug overdose, with about 66% of all drug overdose deaths involving an opioid. On average, 115 Americans die every day from an opioid overdose.

Opioids are drugs that target opioid receptors, typically in the brain and spinal cord, to reduce pain. The term “opioid” comes from opium, the morphine-containing substance that the opium poppy excretes when cut. Morphine can be chemically modified into several different opioids including hydrocodone, oxycodone, and heroin. When these drugs bind to opioid receptors in the brain, pain relief occurs. At higher doses, euphoria, or a sense of great pleasure, can occur. This feature, alongside patients’ desires to relieve their pain and the possibility of developing a physical dependency on the drugs, has led to the abuse and addictive potential of opioids. Side effects that accompany higher doses, including loss of consciousness and difficulty breathing, have made this addiction lethal and fueled the opioid epidemic in America.

On October 26, 2017, the White House administration declared the American opioid crisis a “national health emergency.” Since then, politicians, medical professionals, and patients have awaited the actions that would address this emergency. These actions have come to fruition in the last two weeks through the recent announcement of a three-pronged approach to ending the opioid epidemic and passage of the $1.3 trillion omnibus spending bill on March 23, 2018.

The White House strategy has focused on an aggressive advertising campaign, expanding opioid addiction treatment, and stricter punishments for drug traffickers including the death penalty. The omnibus bill covered a reported $3.3 billion in funding to address the opioid epidemic and mental health issues. This includes nearly $476 million for an evidence-based opioid overdose prevention program, $330 million for comprehensive opioid abuse reduction activities, and $250 million for research related to opioid addiction, non-opioid alternatives, pain management, and addiction treatment.

While this money provides much-needed funds to begin to address the epidemic, the journey from molecule to FDA-approved drug is a long and expensive path. The approval process usually takes at least ten years and costs anywhere from $350 million to over $1 billion per new drug, according to a 2013 analysis by Forbes. This staggering amount of time and money could leave millions of patients living with pain without suitable alternatives as the government cracks down on the prescription of opioid pain medications. However, recent studies suggest that appropriate alternatives already exist.

Two studies published in the Journal of the American Medical Association in the last five months investigated the efficacy of opioids versus non-opioid alternatives like ibuprofen and acetaminophen (Tylenol) in treating pain. The first study, published by Chang et al. saw no clinically significant difference in relieving pain when comparing the use of ibuprofen and acetaminophen to three opioid combinations in a study base of 411 emergency department patients with moderate to severe arm or leg pain. The second study, published by Krebs et al. received even more attention, showing near-identical pain relief over the course of 12 months in 240 patients with severe chronic back pain or arthritis at the hip or knee.

Despite these studies, many patients living with severe chronic pain are concerned that drugs like ibuprofen and acetaminophen fail to give them an adequate quality of life. Healthcare professionals share similar concerns, having witnessed the difference that opioids can make in a patient’s life when taken appropriately. “When you see a grandmother, who is 80 years old and missing the important events in life, take a 25 microgram fentanyl patch, and it allows her to get up and live—that’s gratifying,” one physician at Anderson County Hospital said.

The recent measures taken by Congress to address the opioid epidemic hold promise for reducing opioid overdoses, but it will take actions by the government, scientists, and healthcare professionals to ensure that patients do not become casualties of the new war on drugs.

New Medicare cards will begin to arrive in April says BBB - tips to avoid Medicare scams

The Better Business Bureau serving Nebraska, South Dakota, The Kansas Plains and Southwest Iowa wants consumers who receive Medicare benefits to be aware that Medicare cards are undergoing a big change to make them more secure.

Medicare is rolling out new cards starting in April 2018 and continuing through April 2019. These new cards will be more secure because they use a “Medicare Beneficiary Identifier” instead of a Social Security number. The delivery of the new cards is staggered, so you will receive your card at a different time than your friends or neighbors. This process will happen automatically, so users do not need to do anything or pay anyone to receive their new card.

“While the new cards should help prevent identity theft, the Better Business Bureau advises Medicare patients to be aware of scams that may arise,” said BBB President Jim Hegarty. Scammers will most likely be taking advantage of confusion around the launch.

How Medicare Scams Work
You receive a call from a person claiming to work with Medicare. They are allegedly calling about a problem with your new Medicare card. The con artist may say your new card was lost or someone tried to use your ID number. To resolve the situation, the scammer just needs your Social Security number.

In another version, the scammer claims you must pay money to receive your new Medicare card. They may ask you for payment information, so they can “complete the process” for you. They may even ask you to mail them your old card.

How to Avoid Medicare Scams •Know how the Medicare card replacement works. Understand that Medicare isn’t calling consumers about the card switch. Also, the new Medicare cards are being provided free of charge.

•Never provide personal information to a stranger. Don’t share personal details with anyone who calls you unsolicited. Do not confirm or give out your full name.

•Although your Social Security Number will be removed, you must still guard your card.

•Destroy your old card.
•Do not pay for your new card - there is no cost for it.

•For more information about changes to the Medicare card visit: gomedicare.gov/newcard.

USE YOUR SENSES TO STAY SAFE.

Natural gas is a safe, clean and reliable energy source for your home. Kansas Gas Service reminds you to schedule regular appliance maintenance, follow manufacturer instructions and use the tips below to help keep you and your family safe.

SOUND

If you hear a hissing sound around your natural gas appliances or meter, this could be an indication of a natural gas leak.

SIGHT

If you see blowing dirt, persistent bubbling in standing water or unexplained discoloration of vegetation, these may be signs of a natural gas leak.

If you see yellow instead of blue flames from your natural gas appliance burners, have them serviced by a licensed professional. A yellow flame is a warning sign natural gas isn't burning efficiently, which can increase the potential for carbon monoxide poisoning.

SMELL

If you smell an odor like sulfur or rotten eggs in or around your home, this may be the warning sign of a natural gas leak.

If you suspect a natural gas leak, leave the area immediately, then dial 911 and call Kansas Gas Service at 1-888-482-4950. Do not use any electrical devices, such as a light switch or wireless phone, in the area.

If you feel unexplained headaches, dizziness, excessive perspiration, fatigue or nausea, check your home's carbon monoxide levels. Improper combustion in your furnace or water heater can cause increased levels of carbon monoxide, which can result in serious injury or death.

If you need to dig, know what's below. Always call 811 at least two full working days before you dig, excavate, plant trees or set fence posts.
