Revved & ready for the weekend

GARNETT - With sunny skies forecast for the coming Saturday and Sunday, organizers are preparing for some 300 high-performance, high-dollar vehicles to descend on Garnett this weekend for the fifth annual installment of the Lake Garnett Grand Prix Revival (LGGPR) - a retro, non-competition version of the Grand Prix races hosted by the community in the 1960s and 1970s.

The event brings vintage race cars, classic sports cars, and modern performance automobiles to the Lake Garnett Park on Oct. 12-14th, 2018, along with thousands of enthusiasts and their families. A downtown car show is also slated for Saturday.

A long-range forecast for the weekend yesterday from the National Weather Service called for a 50 percent chance of rain Friday followed by sunny skies Saturday and Sunday with highs in the 60s.

Lake Garnett once played host to one of the most popular sports car races in the Midwest. Official auto racing at the facility ended in the 1970s early, but some 40-years later a small group of sports car enthusiasts from the region banded together to celebrate memories of the track and the automobiles that once raced there.

In 2014, the first Lake Garnett Grand Prix Revival (LGGPR) was held, comprised of a track event, autocross, car show, and charity rides around the 2.8-mile road course which raise funds for charitable organizations around the area. Since then, the LGGPR has become known as one of the most fan-friendly and reasonably-priced events of its kind to attend, attracting more than 300 cars as well as thousands of participants and spectators.

The Revival has become one of the premier vintage and sports car events in the region, and features high-performance driving exhibitions around the old 2.8 mile race track, the EKAE autocross at the Garnett Municipal Airport, the Hagerty Revival showcase car show in downtown Garnett, a road tour of the area, and the chance for spectators to get a ride around the track in one of 40-different high-performance cars during the VALOMILK Charity Rides.

This year, the event will highlight both historic and modern performance cars from England. Spectators can expect to see rare marques such as Jaguar, Aston Martin, Lotus, Austin Healey, MG, and more. In addition, the KC Exotics group will be putting on a special exhibition at the track on Saturday, with ultra-high-performance supercars from Lamborghini, Ferrari, Porsche, Audi, and Viper, just to name a few.

The celebration wouldn't be complete without examples of cars that raced at Lake Garnett in the 1950s and 60s, and the Heartland Vintage Racing group will ensure that everyone gets their fill of historic horsepower. Vintage Shelby and Boss Mustangs will be on track with thundering Corvettes and Cobras, while more nimble Sprites, Cortinas, and Triumphs carve up the challenging corners. It's a wonderful opportunity for automotive

Sex offenders under close eye

Tracking systems depend on attention by sheriff's offices

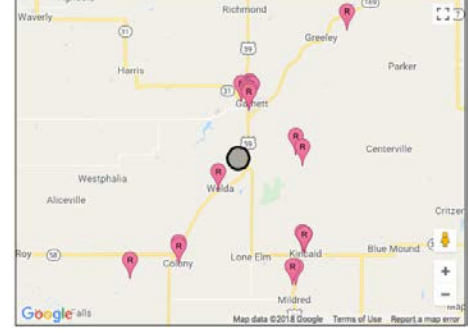

BY DANE HICKS THE ANDERSON COUNTY REVIEW

TOPEKA - A state administrative audit in Missouri that showed Jackson County, Mo., couldn't account for some 1,200 sex offenders who were supposed to be registered there has focused attention on Kansas' accounting methods and on the accuracy of the registry in the local area.

The study, performed by the Missouri State Auditor's office, showed the discrepancies in Jackson County's registry, and determined the Jackson County Sheriff's Department had been either inattentive or neglectful of pursuing the locations of those offenders. Some of those offenders had been non-compliant with registration requirements for years, the report said.

Both Kansas and Missouri law requires those convicted of sex crimes to register with the sheriff's departments in counties where they reside. Both states list those registrants and their current known residences on state websites available to the public. Anderson County presently shows 24 individuals on the God created us for friendship

It is a very good thing to have a close friend. Someone who you can love and trust. With the advent of social media this type of relationship has been forgotten. If you don't have someone who you can sit down with and share your life you truly are missing out on one of the joys of life. True friendship is all about trust and love.

We read in Genesis 15:6; "Abram believed (or trusted) the LORD, and he (God) credited it to him as righteousness." All Abram had was God's word. Perhaps the greatest friendship in the Bible was that of David and Jonathan. In 1st Samuel 20:16-17, Jonathan made a covenant with David saying, "May the LORD call David's enemies to account. And Jonathan had David reaffirm his oath out of love for him, because he loved him as he loved himself." In Exodus 33:11a concerning the Tent of Meeting where God met with Moses we read, "The LORD would speak to Moses face to face as a man speaks with his friend."

The song writer Joseph Scriven used these words to describe Jesus in the hymn "What a Friend we Have in Jesus."

Can we find a friend so faithful who will all our sorrows share? Jesus knows our every weakness; take it to the Lord in prayer.

In Genesis 2 we read how God took Adam and put him in the Garden of Eden to work it and to care for it. God also communed

WEEKLY DEVOTIONAL

BY DAVID BILDERBACK

with Adam not leaving him alone. God did not create man just to turn his back on him. He created man in the image of God himself which should tell us he created us to carry out his purposes. In Revelation 21:3, we read God's ultimate plan for man when John hears a voice saying, "Now the dwelling of God is with man, and he will live with them. They will be his people, and God himself will be with them and be their God."

Much can be made of a man's life but the greatest compliment any person can receive is to be called a friend of God. Our life ebbs away day by day, perhaps so slowly we hardly notice but we will pass into eternity someday. The question then becomes will God be our friend or our enemy?

I supported President Trump's repeal of the EPA's Waters of the United States (WOTUS) rule, and I pledged on day one of my campaign NOT to support Nancy Pelosi for Leader or Speaker if elected.

I have a record of results Kansans can trust. In the Legislature, I worked across the aisle to balance the budget during the Great Recession, cutting spending by $1.2 billion, including my own office budget and pay. I voted in support of the 2nd amendment and the individual right to bear arms. I voted to cut taxes over 150 times, including property taxes, sales tax on groceries, and taxes on business machinery and equipment.

The concerns of Kansans will shape my agenda, and Kansans are tired of Washington playing politics with healthcare. I want to take on drug companies to lower the skyrocketing cost of prescription drugs, protect Medicare, and protect Kansans with pre-existing conditions like cancer or diabetes. I am also proud to be endorsed by law enforcement and first responders. I strongly support ICE, E-verify and supported numerous efforts in the Kansas Legislature to crack down on illegal immigration.

Most importantly, I am a lifelong Kansan. I visited all 25 counties of the district and pledged to host at least one town hall a year in each county of the district every year I serve. I've heard your stories and concerns and I'm ready to roll up my sleeves and get to work for you.

We are a cozy little restaurant in the quiet town of Greeley where we offer traditional BBQ at its best along with a whole list of delicious sides. So come enjoy some awesome food and some great company.

Farm City Days: Anti gun, anti-Kobach, or both?

It isn't just anti-Second Amendment sentiment that's run amok in Iola with the denial by the Farm City Days committee to allow Kris Kobach's jeep and machine gun parade entry in the FCD Parade - it's nothing short of flat out political prejudice.

What a shame is that this political animosity has crept into an organization as institutional as the Iola event. Farm City Days was started four decades ago as an opportunity to bring area farmers and the ag industry together with townies to celebrate the works of the farm and the market to which those farm goods are eventually sold. Democrats, Republicans, Independents - no matter - the idea was to focus on the partnership and the beneficial synergy of farm and town. It is attended annually by thousands from around the region.

That sentiment was the heartbeat of the organization since its inception in 1971, but now, like so much else in our country, Farm City Days has made itself about politics and the narrow, intolerant views of a handful of its organizers - all because a majority of its board has opted to foist its political beliefs upon the parade audience and restrict its parade entries according to that majority's political leanings.

Kobach supporter and Iolan Don Erbert's red, white and blue jeep with its replica machine gun mount is by far the most recognizable parade entry of the 2018 political season in Kansas. Breathless, hand-wringing publicity from press outlets generated Kobach tons of free media during parades prior to the primary and made the rig the most memorable of the 2018 Kansas political season.

The FCD committee told Erbert he could enter the parade with Kobach, but they'd have to remove the gun mount. Both men are vehement supporters of the Second Amendment, and the obvious message was that if you want to be in our parade, you're going to need to give up on your convictions. Justifiably, they declined.

But the question can't be denied: did the FCD parade organizers discover they'd struck out on a veiled but effective way to keep Kobach out of the parade by attacking the illustration of his Constitutional right?

REVIEW COMMENTARY

DANE HICKS, Publisher

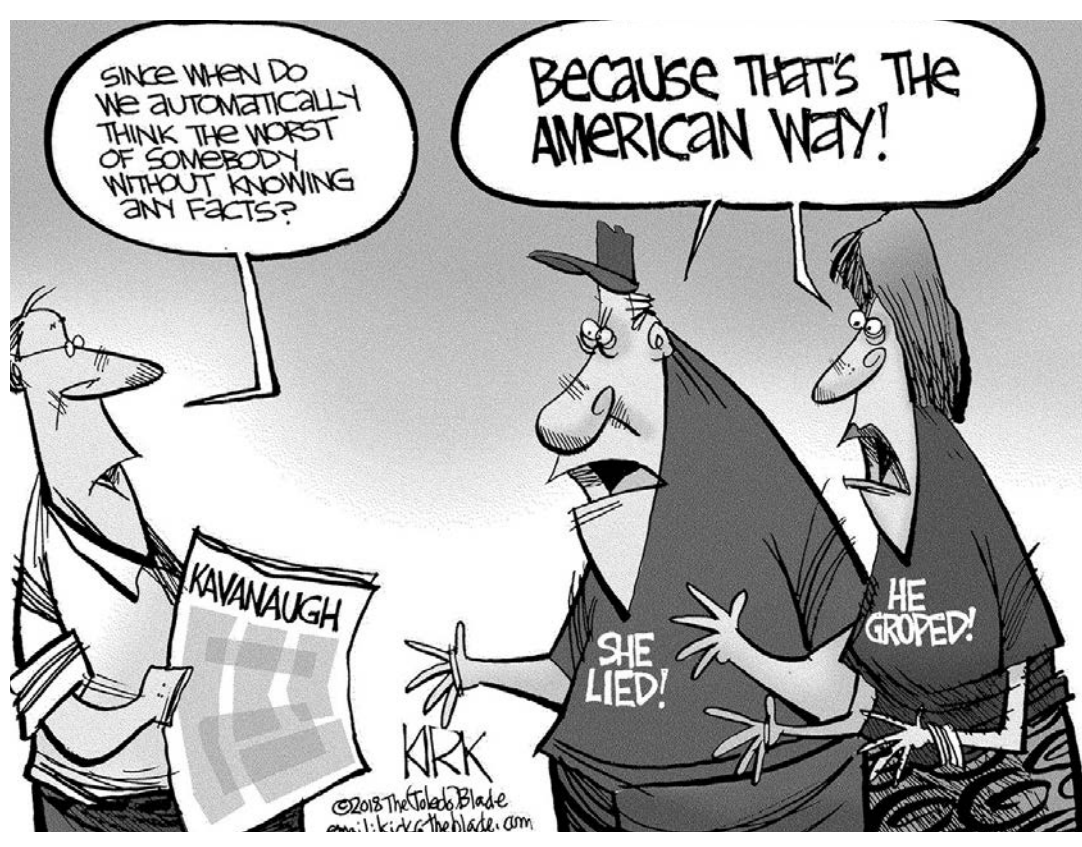

The move overall is an interesting one, considering Allen County Republicans, who cast some 90 percent of the votes in the primary, picked Kobach handily over seven contenders in the GOP field.

Firearms are part of the American heritage, and as such part of the tradition of parades. Military color guards frequently march in parades nationwide with rifles as part of their units. Colleges and high school drill teams lead bands and carry replica rifles to conduct drill exhibitions with them. Western re-enactors carry firearms as part of their frontier regalia. Military rifle teams honor the loved ones of fallen soldiers with 21 gun salutes. Firearms are ingrained in the American sense of celebration and discipline. There is certainly no basis in history or American culture to prohibit a replica firearm from a parade float or entry.

Unless of course you're in Iola, and you're Kris Kobach.

That vote of the Farm City Days committee, which was not unanimous, resulted in the resignation in protest by its chairman. Now, word is that some sponsors - those who perhaps have a better sense of American culture and both the First and Second Amendments to the Constitution, are pulling their support.

What a terrible thing for a handful of politically intolerant people to do to a venerable community event, all in the name of squelching a candidate and his very American beliefs.

Finally stopped at the John Brown Museum in Osawatomie the other day and was amazed at what a loser he was. The museum was closed but the park has plaques that tell the story of the battle of Osawatomie. His forces were outnumbered 7-1 but his strategy was to retreat across the Marais de Cygnes and draw the pro-slavery forces away from the town. It failed, the town was left defenseless and was burned to the ground. Then he murdered those people on the Pottawatomie and became a wanted man, drawing unnecessary attention to himself and hampering his guerrilla tactics. Then he failed to take over the arsenal at Harper's Ferry, got his son killed and himself hanged for his trouble. The statue of him at the park is inscribed with "By losing, he won." Sounds like he'd be a Democrat today.

Mr. Hicks, your September 25 editorial was spot on. Those turncoat Republicans you named don't have the guts to back the Republican candidates. You write great editorials. I wish you owned the Topeka Capital-Journal. These idiots are so far left, the knuckles on their left hand are worn out from dragging on the ground. Keep on writing those great editorials.

I bought the paper today and I will not buy it anymore. Anyone that runs anything by Anne Coulter is nuts. She's a racist pig. Number two, this judge we're voting on is a liar, a drunk, doesn't need to be on the bench. Cry baby, can't answer questions. We don't need all that. Lastly, whoever it was drove by the Cornstock, Gomorra and all that? Dude, you're frickin' nuts.

Yeah, we've all known girls that go to parties like they're talking about in the judge Kavanaugh confirmation hearings on TV. We all know they all go for their own reasons, but they go of their own free will. They're certainly no better or no worse than the boys that go to those parties.

What will be the impact of Trump in Topeka?

We have less than a month to figure out whether the Topeka rally by President Donald Trump will see if his endorsement of GOP gubernatorial candidate Secretary of State Kris Kobach is going to move the tight race in Kobach's favor.

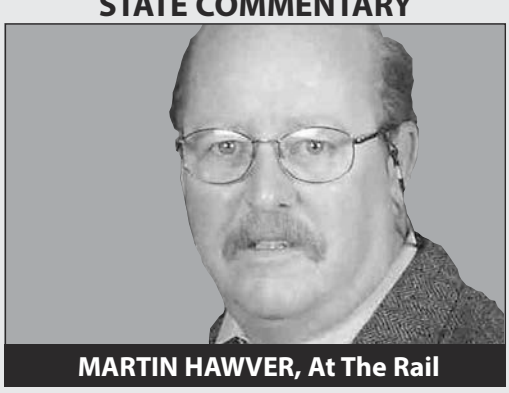

Similarly, we're going to see whether his endorsement moves the tight race for 2nd District Congress to Republican Steve Watkins, who has virtually no government experience—or even experience at voting—to the relatively little-known Republican.

While a presidential visit to the state is always front-page news, Trump had his issue Saturday which was celebration of the Senate confirmation of Brett Kavanaugh as the newest, and perhaps tipping-point on life issues, nominee to the U.S. Supreme Court.

The question, of course, is will that matter to Kansas voters next month?

At the rally, Trump talked a little about general issues, the ones that rile the Kansas Legislature each session, like taxes and spending and illegal immigration. But nothing specific that would bring Kansas notoriety as a national leader or strong supporter of Trump policies on those issues. But...it's not going to be difficult for candidates for governor and congressional seats to raise those issues to show that if they are elected, well, the president is on their side for whatever political and legislative advantage that might yield them and their constituents.

There weren't many legislative candidates visible at the rally. Trump didn't identify any

STATE COMMENTARY

by name, and searches of the 10,000-Republican crowd at the event didn't turn up any legislative candidate who made it into the same photo frame as Trump. It is those state legislators who, if Kobach defeats Democratic challenger Laura Kelly, will tip Kansas government next session either in favor of Kobach or away from Kobach in floor votes or in considering vetoes.

The rally, though, probably had a positive effect on conservative Republicans trying to move some of those moderate GOP candidates toward conservative policy. There are going to be those House candidates who point to conservative party leadership, and their degree of support for that conservatism may jiggle the Legislature's votes on state issues ranging from tax cuts to school finance to expansion of Medicaid (KanCare) to voting rights.

And there are going to be moderate

Republicans who vote along with Democrats on key state issues who will be able to portray themselves as important brakes on conservative moves that would dramatically alter Kansas' responsibility to care for the poor, the ill, the roads, the students from grade school through college.

Which side wins and which side of the GOP uses the Trump appearance to its best advantage in the general election are keys for candidates who are selling themselves to voters who are pro-Trump or anti-Trump. Democrats, seeing the GOP reaction to the presidential visit, may find ways to translate that into voter support for not taking that conservative tack in the upcoming Legislature.

Remember, when Trump carried Kansas in 2016 with 56.6% of the vote to Democrat Hillary Clinton's 36%, that was before Trump actually had taken the wheel of the federal government. His tough trade policies that appeared for a time likely to make Kansas farmers just watch their crops and livestock they produced rather than seeing them sell at good prices, now are being shifted to what might become economic boons for those farmers. And restricting immigration, a key to Kansas productivity because those immigrants comprise a significant share of the state's workforce, might just become another of those policy moves that may shift to help the state's economy.

Kansans have a month to decide, or predict, what effect Trump has had on the state—and even their Kansas House districts. And then vote for or against it.

Atticus Finch would be on the wrong side today

the vehemence and emotion she can muster, Ewell insists that Robinson attacked her at her house.

Without mercy, Finch takes apart her account. In contemporary internet argot, he "destroys" her. He brushes right by her tears. He doesn't care about her feelings, only the facts. He exposes contradictions in her story and shreds her credibility, especially with the dramatic revelation that Robinson doesn't have use of his left arm when he stands up at the defense table (he is alleged to have hit her with his left hand).

It is revealed that Ewell is lying. She had made an advance on Robinson and gotten caught by her vicious, racist father. The charge of rape against Robinson was a cover story, although the bigoted jury convicts him anyway.

“To Kill a Mockingbird” stands firmly for the proposition that an accusation can be false, that unpopular defendants presumed guilty must and should be defended, and that it is admirable and brave to withstand the crowd when it wants to cast aside the normal protections of justice.

Exactly what has made Atticus Finch such an honored figure in our culture would make him a very inconvenient man at many college campuses today, where charges of sexual misconduct are adjudicated without the accused being allowed to confront the accuser or make use of other key features of our system of justice. He didn't believe that someone being accused of something is enough to establish his wrongdoing.

Atticus Finch is not the man for this moment, but we need him, and his reasoned yet unshakable commitment to fairness and justice, more than ever.

I wish the city would go around street to street and see where they may need to cut back a few trees from people's view when you're trying to pull up to a street corner and go when they're no stop signs in your way. There's one on 3rd and South Hayes when you're looking south you can't tell if there's a car coming. I've seen wrecks nearly happen there and there's people walking and riding bikes.

Couple of Native American artifacts found

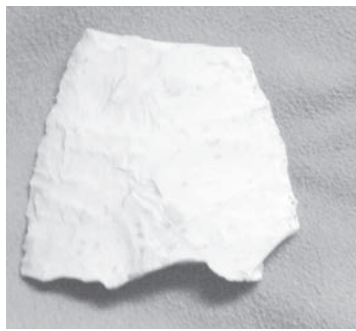

I know, I know, just a picture of a couple of "rocks". Actually they're not. They are two Native American flint artifacts.

About six weeks ago, I was out walking in a local pasture, when I came upon this little dried up stream bed and I went to cross it something caught my eye.

DIGGING UP THE PAST

Henry Roeckers
Call (785) 504-4722 for local archeology information.

Lying there directly down my right foot was a stone tool and only a short distance from it was another stone artifact.

The artifact pictured to your left is a damaged Native American stone knife or perhaps a spear point, while to your right is what they call a core stone or cobble. Some people call it debri or left-over stone.

I decided to take a stroll up and down the stream bed, but didn't find anymore exposed artifacts. Temptation got the best of me and I returned to the original crossing spot and I collected both of these artifacts.

40 years ago: Chili supper to fight making the drug liquor more available was well attended

10 years ago...

Colony resident Debbie Oswald recently received a new title as Colony's mayor after former mayor John Dunbar's resignation from the city council. Oswald said the duties of mayor are not new to her. She has been the president of the council for several years, even when Bob Swift was the previous mayor before Dunbar. The president fills in as mayor if the mayor is unable to attend the meeting or vacates the office.

Just over nine months after the mysterious death of a Welda man, another Anderson County man has been arrested in connection with the incident for giving false statements in the case. Anderson County Sheriff Dave Vaughan said county officers arrested Dale Brooks of Welda for making false statements to investigators about the unattended death of Ricky Lee Bloom, 40 of Welda. Bloom died January 10 at Brooks' Welda home.

Sheriff's Department is trying to revive an event which in earlier times was a regular occurrence here, as they plan for the first Annual Anderson County Sheriff Department Shootout. The contest will feature a course for pistol combat and one for riot gun. Sheriff Tom Hermreck says the department hopes to have about 15 teams from other east-central Kansas law enforcement agencies participating.

About 250 persons attended a chili supper held by the United Dry Forces of Kansas in Anderson County. The supper was the county group's first major activity in its fight against liquor-by-the-drink. Calling alcohol the number one drug problem, Rev. Richard Taylor said the public would not consider legalizing heroin or other hard drugs to make them more readily available so why should they make the drug liquor more available?

100 years ago...

Monday evening an accident occurred on Oak Street and fortunately nobody was killed, though it is a wonder the occupants escaped with their lives. Miss Winona Cook was driving the car, and Miss Helen Farmer, Leta Baber, Ethel Wollen, Viola Cook, and Harold Cook were with her. Evidently the driver lost control of the car and it went from side to side in a zigzag fashion and finally turned over. It is reported that Arthur Cook, Winona's brother, was first driving the car, but had gotten out and gone into the post office, and the girls decided that was a good time to take a joy ride.

My teaching career began here in Garnett where I taught elementary education and coached volleyball and track for 15 years. As an administrator, I have served as principal at both the elementary and middle school levels.

As the governing body of our city, we need to represent and serve the community members who elect us. We'll review community survey results, use them to guide a 5-year, 10-year, and 20-year strategic plan that clearly outlines the vision for our future. This vision will guide budget decisions and provide a discernible plan for all stakeholders.

We will continue improving and working on infrastructure projects such as the new water treatment plant, replacing wastewater lines and maintaining roads. We must look at the possibility of the Highway 169 expansion and the opportunities and the positive effect this could have on our community.

Let's work together to restore and beautify downtown Garnett, residential areas, parks, playgrounds, and lakes. We'll look for additional resources to help our neighbors and local businesses revive and maintain their properties with programs such as the Garnett Revitalization Project and Habitat for Humanity.

While I am not a polished politician, I believe my 33 years in education, many of which have been on the business side of the profession, along with serving as commissioner for the past two years, have given me the experience necessary to serve the people of our great city of Garnett.

and the Constitution of the United States.

First, the Osawatomie State Hospital needs to be improved, updated, properly staffed, and funded. It should not be privatized. Over 200 good Kansas State jobs are there and can't be replaced once they are gone. The current administration is exploring handing out 25 year bed leases to private parties elsewhere in the state. We've been warned. The OSH has served Kansans since the Civil War, but they really mean to take it away this time. We must stop them. Failure would be devastating to our local economy.

Second, I oppose the Legislature having sole control of public school funding. It's not the Kansas way of doing things. Our public and rural schools need help, not defunding. Local districts should also have a say, along with the courts if need be.

We need a $10.25 Kansas minimum wage, protection for teachers, the expansion of Medicaid, and medical marijuana for cancer patients and veterans (and farmers). Family dairies need our help, too.

One way is to let dairies who wish to sell fresh milk products produced and sold on the premises to use unpaid advertising (such as bulletin boards or social media) to let city people know where to find them. I will champion this cause in the Legislature, because it's the right thing to do for our district.

I am running to bring military leadership and conservative Kansas values to the politicians on Capitol Hill. We must combat the gridlock and hyper-partisanship that has plagued progress for decades.

District 5 has made it clear that it demands a leader and problem-solver who builds bridges, moves Kansas forward, works as a team, and helps Kansans.

Another top priority is fixing our tax structure to provide a fair and balanced system that cuts the burden of property taxes and sales tax on food that hits most Kansans

These include keeping taxes low, standing firm on illegal immigration, and protecting Social Security and Medicare for today's seniors and future generations. These are all issues that Kansans have been waiting for Congress to tackle, and I know with your support I will bring unique experience and a new perspective to help get results for Anderson County and all of Eastern Kansas.

October is Fire Prevention Month, Governor Colyer proclaims Oct. 7-13, Fire Prevention Week in Kansas

October 2, 2018 – Governor Jeff Colyer officially proclaimed Oct. 7-13, 2018, as Fire Prevention Week in Kansas yesterday. The Office of the State Fire Marshal (OSFM) and Safe Kids Kansas teamed up with the National Fire Protection Association (NFPA) – the official sponsor of Fire Prevention Week™ for more than 90 years – to promote this year's Fire Prevention Week campaign, "Look. Listen. Learn. Be aware. Fire can happen anywhere™," which works to educate the public about basic but essential ways to quickly and safely escape a home fire.

Today's home fires burn faster than ever. In a typical home fire, you may have as little as one or two minutes to escape safely from the time the smoke alarm sounds. Knowing how to use that time wisely takes planning and practice.

In Kansas, 100 percent of civilian fire deaths in 2017 occurred in residential structure fires, and there were 2,589 residential fires in Kansas in 2017, resulting in 18 deaths and 214 injuries.

NFPA statistics show that the number of U.S. home fires has been steadily declining over the past few decades. However, the death rate per 1000 home fires that are reported to fire departments was 10 percent higher in 2016 than in 1980.

While people feel safest in their home, it is also the place people are at greatest risk to fire, with four out of five U.S. fire deaths occurring at home. That over-confidence contributes to a complacency toward home escape planning and practice.

"We know that people often make choices in fire situations that jeopardize their safety or even cost them their lives," Doug Jorgensen, State Fire Marshal, said. "We need to do a better job of teaching people about the potentially life-saving difference escape planning and practice can make and motivating them to action."

Safe Kids Kansas reminds families that Saturday, Oct. 13, is Home Fire Drill Day. This is an opportunity to plan, talk about and practice your fire plan with all your family members, especially young children, so they know what to do when they hear a smoke alarm.

"Teach children to get low and get out when they hear the smoke alarm," Cherie Sage, Safe Kids Kansas, said. "A child who has practiced getting out of the home and to a safe meeting spot will have a better chance of getting out of danger safely during a real emergency, so practice your escape plan regularly as a family."

Jorgensen says this year's "Look. Listen. Learn." campaign highlights three steps people can take to help quickly and safely escape a fire.

- Look for places fire could start.
- Listen for the sound of the smoke alarm.
- Learn two ways out of every room.

While OSFM, Safe Kids Kansas and NFPA are focusing on home fires, these fire safety messages apply to virtually anywhere.

"Situational awareness is a skill people need to use wherever they go," Jorgensen said. "No matter where you are, look for available exits. If the alarm system sounds, take it seriously and exit immediately."

KANSAS GOVERNOR

Laura Kelly (D)

I'm a Senator, as well as a wife and mother. I grew up in a military family. I came to Kansas 32 years ago because of the stellar schools and the opportunities available to my family. But in the last eight years, those things have been put at risk. I'm running for governor to rebuild our state and make sure every Kansan has the opportunity to succeed.

Kelly

It's been my lifelong mission to do right by Kansas kids and families. When Sam Brownback made the largest cut to our schools in state history - resulting in larger class sizes - I fought back. I worked to expand early childhood education by doubling the number of kids entering kindergarten ready to learn. And I led the effort to end the reckless Brownback tax experiment and put Kansas on the road to recovery.

It's time to restore Kansas and invest in our people again. As governor, I will fully fund our public schools so that our children can be ready for the jobs of the future. I will expand Medicaid to provide affordable healthcare and support rural hospitals. And I will invest in roads and broadband to support businesses and encourage innovation. I will also use my budget expertise to ensure Kansas continues to recover from the Brownback experiment and we can balance the budget without raising taxes. Once the budget is stable, I will work to provide property tax relief and lower the sales tax on food to provide real help to working men, women and their families.

This is a pivotal election for Kansas. I am a no-nonsense problem solver who can get to work on day one to solve the problems facing our state. As your governor, I'll bring people together to put our state back on the right track.

Kris Kobach (R)

Talk is cheap in politics. Politicians are always making promises, but results are something different. I've shown the people of Kansas that I will deliver results. As Secretary of State, I promised we'd have photo ID and proof of citizenship, and I would cut the size of my office budget. I delivered on all three promises. You can see by my actions that if I make a promise, I put my head down and push as hard as I can to deliver on my promises.

I support public education and will be committed to ensuring that 75 cents of every tax dollar sent to our schools goes to the classroom. Currently, only 53 cents of every tax dollar sent to schools goes to classroom instruction. That will change when I am governor. We will reduce our tax rate in Kansas, especially our property tax rates. I will fight to cap property tax reappraisals to no more than 2 percent per year. I will also push hard to pass the federal, Trump tax windfall through to Kansas families. We are overtaxed. Kansas is the high tax state in the five-state region, and we will cut spending so we can cut taxes. That was the missing ingredient in the last administration.

We have an historic opportunity right now to shrink the size of state government through attrition. Nationally, 11,000 Baby Boomers are retiring every day, and when those retirees are Kansas government employees, my administration will not replace all of them. We'll pass on those savings to taxpayers.

I cut my office's budget from $7 million, when I took office, down to $4.6 million, and we did it without cutting services. When I make a promise, I keep it, so I ask for your vote on Nov. 6.

Kobach

Jeff Caldwell (L)

My name is Jeff Caldwell. I am a Johnson County resident running for Governor of Kansas. I have been an executive member for the Libertarian Party of Kansas since 2010. I am running for Governor of Kansas to be the lead representative of the people and to bring the change Kansas needs for a prosperous future. I am the only candidate supporting full legalization of cannabis and the only candidate who will pardon all nonviolent cannabis offenses. I will also work to abolish the tax on food and water, lower private property tax, abolish crony corporate government spending, abolish spending that influences the way politicians vote, and end civil asset forfeiture.

I will issue an executive order to prevent the state from discriminating against anyone. I will ensure that cannabis, hemp, and sports betting revenue is earmarked for school funding to satisfy the school funding increase. I want to keep education funding and Medicaid funding at current levels while bringing in real free-market alternatives to the crony government monopolies Brownback ushered in.

There should be less red tape preventing direct primary care doctors from entering the workforce. I will work with the federal government to allow for pharmaceutical drugs from other countries to be sold in Kansas, and insurance companies from other states should be allowed to cover Kansans.

The Kansas Education Liberty Act should be passed in its entirety. This would allow for nonprofit organizations to handle education funding alongside the state. The bill incentivizes donations to the nonprofits through a dollar for dollar tax credit.

I am the only candidate who wants to cut government spending, lower taxes, legalize cannabis, and defend the 2nd Amendment. Vote Jeff Caldwell and Mary Gerlt for Governor and Lieutenant Governor on November 6th!

Caldwell

Brian McClendon (D)

I'm Brian McClendon - friends call me "BAM". I'm running for Kansas Secretary of State. I grew up in Kansas and went to school here - from kindergarten through college.

I've spent much of my life leading teams to build technology that helps people understand our world and get where they want to go. As a Vice President of Google, I led the development of Google Earth and Google Maps - used by billions of people around the world. I even made the apartment where I grew up in Kansas - the center of Google Earth. I built startup companies and led teams of over 2,000 professionals.

I can help secure our private information, make sure our elections run smoothly, and that all votes are counted accurately.

Kris Kobach's poor leadership has left the Secretary of State's office a mess. Our private data has been leaked multiple times. He has taken on and lost needless and expensive court battles, leaving Kansas taxpayers to pay his legal costs. His partisan ambition and poor judgement have cost us time and money that could have been spent on election security, government transparency, and operating efficiency. My opponent is a career politician and an ally of Kobach who also sided with Brownback's destructive cuts to Kansas public education.

I've led engineers and development technology to solve difficult challenges. I know the digital environment that shapes our world. Experienced leadership and appropriate technology can refocus the office of the Secretary of State on the priorities of Kansas businesses, voters and all Kansans.

I've also helped build a non-partisan app - called KSVotes.org - that has allowed more than 10,000 eligible Kansas citizens to register to vote in minutes.

I'm "BAM" McClendon, and I'd appreciate your vote in the election this November.

McClendon

Scott Schwab (R)

I'm originally from Great Bend and a graduate of Fort Hays State University. My career has taken me from a small business owner in the insurance industry to a National Sales Trainer for a Fortune 50 company. With over a decade of both private sector and public policy experience, I'm prepared to lead with professionalism and excellence - ensuring a better Kansas for future generations.

First elected to the Kansas House of Representatives in 2002, I've consistently worked to bring local control and dollars to our schools and supported free enterprise to strengthen our economy. As Chairman of the House Elections Committee, I championed several key pieces of election policy including Voter ID and Proof of Citizenship, safeguarding Kansas elections.

I've served on multiple committees in the House and held several leadership positions including Chairman of the House Elections Committee, Insurance & Financial Institutions Committee, and currently Speaker Pro Tempore.

My most important role is being a husband and dad. My wife, Michele, and I currently live in Olathe with our children.

As Secretary of State, I'll deliver experienced leadership, the Kansas way.

1. Dependable Leadership: We'll put aside partisan politics and lead the Secretary of State's office with professionalism and transparency, making it a dependable resource for every Kansan.

2. Ensuring Success: We'll ensure the proud Kansans who work and volunteer in our elections system receive the training, technology and support they need to do their jobs efficiently and effectively.

3. Keeping Kansas Safe: We have policies in place to secure our elections at the ballot box, but the newest threat is in the field of technology. We'll faithfully and fully execute the important policies and safeguards in place and provide cutting edge IT security.

Schwab

Rob Hodgkinson (L)

I am Rob Hodgkinson, a 5th generation Kansan, born in Pratt, raised in the Hutchinson area, graduate of Buhler High, attended Kansas State University majoring in Electrical Engineering Technology.

I am a Realtor today (licensed both KS & MO) & I moved to the KC area in 1984 and have been living in my Stilwell home since 2000. I am married, have three grown children and seven grandchildren and two dogs (both rescues).

I have the "trifecta" of experience that the Kansas Secretary of State's office needs that neither of my opponents have.

1) I have an IT background with experience being responsible for a company's entire IT/IS enterprise.

2) I also have small business experience with an exterior remodeling company I was a partner/owner in; we tripled in size during the recession.

3) I have election experience from a third party "Outsider" perspective having testified in many legislative committees.

I am the expert in the major/minor party rules/knowledge in Kansas. Elections have been a passion for me for over 16 years now.

In 2009 I was part of a study group called "the Future of Kansas Elections" in 2010 I was part of a televised forum about the importance of voting.

I was the catalyst for the Kansas special election law update in January 2017

I will lobby to strengthen the new regulations for audits in elections (effective 1/2019). The current wording of the audit requirements leaves a lot of wiggle room as to how they will be done.

I am an advocate for Ranked Choice Voting (RCV)

I will not be wearing the uniform of one of the 2 big political parties; the Kansas Secretary of State should answer to Kansans, not the political parties.

I will restore the lost credibility of the Kansas Secretary of State office.

Hodgkinson

Rick Kloos (I)

My name is Rick Kloos, and I'm an independent candidate running for governor. I'm the frustrated Republican that went independent because I believe we can do politics better. I want to get back to common sense and balance, and start working together to find middle ground. I grew up in Miltonvale, Kansas, and met my wife of 33 years in Concordia. I have four boys and two grandkids. I have been a volunteer police chaplain, clergyman, hospice chaplain, licensed real-estate agent, and founded a successful nonprofit nearly 10 years ago, serving the community of Topeka that employs over 30 people.

After visiting all 105 counties, I heard from Kansans what's important to them. So...

Let's support Education Redesign, focusing more on the student rather than the system, which helps prepare them for a career in life.

Let's strengthen agriculture by giving farmers the option to produce hemp. And let's also continue to preserve Western Kansas' Ogallala Aquifer.

Let's preserve Kansas appeal by continuing to fund our t-works program and begin planning for bridges that will need replaced.

Let's empower local government by supporting home rule and put trust back into our local leaders.

Let's unite Kansas through bi-partisan efforts and work between the parties to find the best solutions for Kansas.

And lastly, let's promote Kansas to help it grow

Being a founder of a non-profit organization, I realize that the state cannot be run as just a business; but rather needs to have a healthy balance of service and business.

I've never been in politics, but the definition of insanity is to do the same thing over and over and expect different results.

Consider doing something different and vote for Rick Kloos November 6th.

Greg Orman (I)

Greg Orman (I) In the race for governor, Kansas has three choices. Two career politicians who have been part of the problem for decades. Or an Independent business man who can bring Kansas into the future.

Orman

The career politicians take money from special interests, lobbyists, and corporations who want favors from the state. On the Democratic side, you have a Senator who wants big government, big spending, and has no way to pay for it except to raise your taxes. On the Republican side, you have a far-right extremist who wants to return to the failed Brownback experiment, and starve the state.

We know the results of both approaches - stagnant wages; skyrocketing healthcare costs; and our children leaving the state.

The third option? An independent voice.

My name is Greg Orman, and I represent a better path. We don't need big government and we don't need to starve the government. What we need is better government.

I've spent my life in the private sector getting better results without spending more money. Hundreds of people in Kansas have jobs because of the companies I've built and managed. My focus will be to grow our economy, so we can create good jobs, invest in public schools, make healthcare affordable. And I'll do it all without raising your taxes.

It can be done. And I have a plan to do it.

Together, we can make Kansas a place where our children and grandchildren choose to build their lives. But I need your help.

Vote Greg Orman in November and vote against the Topeka establishment, vote against the name calling, and vote against the noise coming out of the Democratic and Republican Parties.

Be a TV star to promote business

Getting on television to talk about your goods and services and present yourself as an expert in your field is easier than you might think, and the effect of a single appearance can go a long way in helping you sell stuff.

In a previous column you'll remember I talked about the five facets of marketing: promotion, publicity, public relations, personal sales and advertising. A TV appearance falls under publicity, and to land yourself a few minutes in front of the camera you need a little planning.

You probably already have a pretty good feel for the seasonality or the "pulse" opportunities for your business. For example if you're a tax preparer you know you're going to be busiest between Jan. 1 and April 15. If you're a hardware store the snow shovels and ice melt will be hottest in the winter. But make it a point to listen to your customers particularly when they're asking questions - their questions can tip you off to needs and wants and opportunities for your product or service that you hadn't thought of because you're too close to the game.

HOW TO SELL STUFF

Dane Hicks
Publisher - THE TRADING POST

Those tips are opportunities for publicity - think about it: Your customer wants education so much at this particular point in time he's asking- begging you- for an answer.

Now project that understanding onto your local TV station. Just about every local station in the country produces a morning show of some kind, and their producers are always hustling to find local content to fill those minutes between the commercials and the news and weather breaks. They need ideas, and they need lots of them to fill the program time.

Think about the timing that applies to your product or service. If you sell snow shovels, call the show's producer at the station in November and tell her you'd like to propose a show idea on good vs. bad snow shovels and the proper art of shoveling; if you sell candles, a show on gift candles just before Christmas or Mothers Day would be enticing to viewers. Kids leaving for college in August? What a great time for an auto parts store to pitch a story about the things every college kid needs in the trunk of his car.

Most of all don't be shy. Get to know the programs that have guests, the hosts and the producers and don't be afraid to call and make your pitch. Not only do you get free access to thousands of morning TV watchers, you can get a cool video of your appearance that you can use (with permission) on your website or other video marketing.

4-H Clover: International Symbol

Millions of past and present 4-H members look to the 4-H clover as a symbol of personal growth, responsibility and achievement. Why a clover to symbolize the youth organization?

In June 1906, when Wright County, Iowa, school superintendent O.H. Benson, visited a one room school near Clarion, Iowa, he received a gift of seven fourleaf clovers from the children. Benson told them that he had been searching for an emblem to represent the nation's agricultural clubs and schools and that they had just given him that emblem.

The four-leaf clover, which stands for good luck and achievement, reminded Benson of his own idea of a "four-square education" that included: education, fellowship and physical and moral development. Benson had three sketches of possible emblems in his office — a three-leaf clover, a four-leaf clover and a five-pointed star. The three-leaf clover was selected to be the Boys' and Girls' Club emblem in 1907.

An "H" was placed in the center of each leaf to represent the head, heart and hands; the head trained to think, plan and reason; the heart trained to be true, kind and sympathetic; and the hands trained to be useful, helpful and skillful. Around 1908, the idea of the four-leaf clover was becoming more popular.

The word hustle was chosen as the fourth "H" because it renders easy service and develops health and vitality. In 1922, the four-leaf clover was adopted and the word hustle was replaced with health to represent the equal training of the head, heart, hands and health of children. The green color of the clover was said to stand for youth, life and growth, and the color white was chosen for each "H" because it symbolizes purity.

In 1924, the Boys' and Girls' Club became known as 4-H and the emblem was patented. When the patent expired in 1939, Congress passed a law to protect the use of the 4-H club's name and emblem for unauthorized use.

National 4-H Month

Event concludes with 48 hours of community service October 13 & 14

MANHATTAN, Kan. — Kansas Gov. Jeff Colyer signed a proclamation on Monday recognizing Oct. 7-13 as National 4-H Week in Kansas, clearing the way for a week-long celebration of America's largest youth development organization.

4-H reaches nearly 75,000 young people across Kansas. Colyer's proclamation notes that National 4-H Week "highlights the remarkable 4-H youth in Kansas who work each day to make a positive impact on those around them."

The Kansas 4-H program is delivered through K-State Research and Extension and its network of local extension offices. Amy Sollock, the southwest area 4-H youth development specialist, notes that the organization empowers youth with skills to lead in their life and career.

"4-H was founded on the belief that when kids are empowered to pursue their passions and chart their own course, their unique skills grow and take shape, helping them to become true leaders in their lives, careers and communities," she said.

In addition to the youth members, there are nearly 11,000 people who volunteer their time to Kansas 4-H by creating the life experiences that "Inspire Kids to Do" for their communities, which is the theme for National 4-H Week.

"4-H Youth Development has been a part of Kansas communities since 1905," said Wade Weber, the state program leader for Kansas 4-H. "Today more than ever, 4-H provides a unique opportunity for youth to discover their passions, build their skills, and grow confidence with the support of caring adults and dynamic partnerships with local and K-State based resources."

He adds: "4-H youth build essential life skills like problem solving, team work, communication, and decision making that enable them to become tomorrow's leaders by doing leadership today."

National 4-H Week in Kansas wraps up Oct. 13-14 with the fifth annual 48 Hours of 4-H community service event taking place across the state. 4-Hers and volunteers plan community service events sometime during that weekend to symbolize the organization's commitment of

'doing.'

"Kansas 4-Hers are active in their community year-round, but 48 Hours of 4-H is an opportunity to highlight the 4-H members and volunteers who are 'doing' all across Kansas," Sollock said. "In 4-H, kids roll up their sleeves and do with their hands. Their experiences grow the confidence they need for life and career. 4-Hers do with a purpose, lead by example and empower their peers to do the same."

More information about 48 Hours of 4-H is available online. visit. On social media, look for the hashtag, #484H.

BY KEVIN GAINES THE ANDERSON COUNTY REVIEW

Crest Lancers split pair of games on Senior Night

BY KEVIN GAINES THE ANDERSON COUNTY REVIEW

COLONY - The Crest Lancers volleyball team won a hard fought first game against Jayhawk Linn in three sets before being handled easily in a loss to Yates Center in game two.

In the opening game against Jayhawk Linn, the Lancers won but each set was decided by just two points (25-23, 25-27, 25-23) illustrating how even the two teams were on the night.

Several Lancers put up some solid numbers. Camry Strickler led the way with 19 digs, was perfect on 17 serves, 3 kills and 2 blocks.

Cassie Bowen chipped in with 9 kills, 7 digs, 3 aces on 16 serves and 2 blocks.

Aubree Holloran connected on 12-14 serves with 1 ace, had 12 digs, 5 kills and 2 blocks.

Jewel Armstrong and Regan Godderz each had 19 serves with 3 aces in the game. Armstrong also added 7 digs and 3 kills and Godderz tacked on 4 digs and 2 kills in the win.

Breyanna Benjamin was solid defensively with 7 digs and Anna Hermreck tacked on with 3 kills on the offensive attack.

Lindsay Godderz connected on 9 of 10 serves and added 2 digs on the night.

The second game didn't go nearly as well as Yates Center (10-25, 12-25) controlled the match throughout.

Holloran had 3 kills, 3 digs and a block.

Yates Center was constantly attacking and despite the loss the Lancers recorded several digs defensively.

R. Godderz had 3 digs, Bowen 5, Benjamin 3, Armstrong 4 and Strickler recored 2.

"JV started off the evening playing Jayhawk. They lost the first set 13-25, but bounced back and won the second set 25-11. Freshman Lindsey Godderz served 10 straight points. Vicky Rodriguez, Khloe Utley, Anna Hermreck, Andrea Trester, Lindsey Godderz and Vivian Noah all worked well together and played hard. Jayhawk ended up winning the final set 15-7 and taking the match. The girls are continuing to learn and improve," head coach Abigail Hermreck stated.

Hermreck added, "It was great to finally have a home match and get to honor our seniors and their parents. The varsity battled and come out with the victory against Jayhawk. Neither team was letting up and played hard. We played with intensity and confidence, ran our offense, and hustled. It was really fun to watch."

The win against Jayhawk Linn was emotional and physically draining, leaving very little left in the tank for their second game of the night against Yates Center but coach Hermreck was still happy with her girls on the night.

"I think we may have been better off playing Yates Center immediately after the first game instead of the break. We could not get a thing going against YC. We had lost our spark and could not get the passes we needed in serve receive. We wanted to get all wins at home, but I hope the girls can hold on to the positive things that happened and varsity, the feeling we had after winning the first match," Hermreck added.

The Lancers competed at Uniontown Saturday, travel to Southeast tonight, and then have regionals at Moran on October 16.

TRACKING...

sex offender registry, 13 in Garnett, five in Kincaid, two each in Colony and Welda and one in Greeley.

Anderson County Sheriff Vern Valentine said the system works better in Kansas, but still depends on the footwork of the local departments.

"KBI tracks all that and as of last year we have a direct secure connection with them Called KSORT," Valentine said. "They always send us people who are suppose to be registering within Anderson County, and if they are not we go and track them down as they will show up as not in compliance."

Valentine said offenders have to register in not only the county in which they reside, but also in any county other than their residence if they commute there for work. He said that information is available for tracking by the departments as well through KBI sources. The entire system begins with the court conviction, he said.

"If our courts convict someone and part of the conviction is the he or she has to register, we will get a duty to register (order) from the courts as well advising us that this person needs to register with us. This is true with when someone is released from prison as well - we get notification that the person is moving to our county. Jackson County, Mo., Sheriff Darrell Forte, who took over the post as interim sheriff in May, said the department had implemented additional steps to rectify the problem.

The number of registered sex offenders in East Central Kansas counties follows as a function of population density. Franklin County shows 72 offenders listed on the registry, Allen County 51, Miami County 92, Coffey County 27 and Linn County 34.

BY KEVIN GAINES THE ANDERSON COUNTY REVIEW

BASEHOR - The Anderson County Lady Bulldog golf team traveled north on Thursday to Basehor Linwood High School and came away with two top 10 finishers, while finishing fourth as a team.

Walter has had several solid finishes this season including finishing 2nd at Spring Hill earlier this season, 3rd at Chanute, 4th at Pittsburg and 6th at an Invitational hosted by KC-Piper.

Maclaine Sears also finished inside the top ten in 8th place overall, shooting a 91.

Sears hasn't been quite as consistent as Walter, but did finish 1st at Spring Hill earlier this season to go along with an 18th place finish at Pittsburg and 20th at Chanute.

Madolyn Honn (104) and Madison Stevens (107) finished 26th and 30th respectively at Basehor Linwood on Thursday.

Jaxcen Farren (116, 48th place) and Ally Duke (134, 63rd place) rounded out the Lady Bulldog competitors.

As a team the Bulldogs narrowly missed finishing second overall. Topeka Hayden finished first with a score of 342 followed by Tecumseh-Shawnee Heights (379), KC Piper (384) and the Bulldogs (384).

Another cross country event, another win for Viking boys

BY KEVIN GAINES THE ANDERSON COUNTY REVIEW

PLEASANTON - It was just another day at the office for the Central Heights Vikings cross country team last Thursday at the Pleasanton Invitational as the boys continued their dominance by winning every meet they have entered this season.

A head coach knows they can't ever be satisfied as it is important for a team to not get complacent, no matter what level of success they have had. "Believe it or not, it has been a season of ups and downs that have been masked by our success so far," head coach Troy Prosser stated.

Complacency and the strive for league, regional and state championships has Prosser pushing his team down the stretch of the season.

Prosser added, "I was especially pleased with how the kids responded to some challenging workouts the last few days and turned in some of their best performances. It's always nice to be pushed, and each of our races had some of the State's best runners forcing us to be in top form.

Lily Meyer (19:42) won the girls varsity meet, Madison Bridges (20:55) finished fourth and Taryn Compton (21:21) finished 8th.

For the Viking varsity boys, an impressive 7 of the top 15 runners were from Central Heights. Vikings Alex Cannady (17:00, 4th), Tyler Stevenson (17:03, 5th) and Caleb Meyer (17:16, 7th) all finished in the top 10 while Bryce Sommer (17:53, 12th) Mason McCurry (18:05, 13th) Jarod Crawford (18:09, 14th) and Luke Cotter (18:21, 15th) rounded out the Viking runners.

In JV girls action, Rylee McCurry (30:36) placed 17th and in JV boys action David Craft (18:39) placed first.

Three of the top 4 finishers in the seventh grade girl's race were Vikings Emma Cubit in first, Melaney Chrisjohn in second and Kaylee Holstine in fourth. Layla Roll rounded out the runners with a 10th place.

In the seventh grade boy's race Connor Burkdoll (1st), Owen Miller (3rd), Dakota Burnett (4th) and Jotham Meyer (5th) all finished in the top 5.

"With 18 individual medalists, three of which were individual champions, and a solid varsity boys win, we are finally running the way I had envisioned. Lily, Madison, and Taryn are all continuing to make great strides in their first high school season. I'm very, very proud of these kids, but we can't be satisfied. The Flint Hills League meet next week will be quite challenging so we simply have to continue

Lady Bulldogs finish on top at home

BY KEVIN GAINES THE ANDERSON COUNTY REVIEW

GARNETT - Just over a week ago on October 1st, the Anderson County Lady Bulldogs girls were the host of their own tournament, finishing with the top finisher overall as well as winning the team title.

Sammy Walter led the team with a 79 to win the tournament. Teammate and sophomore Maclaine Sears was runner up with an 82. Madison Stevens placed 6th with a 92. Madolyn Honn helped her team with a 102 and placed 12th.

"This team had an amazing round at home shooting a team score of 355 winning 1st at their home tournament beating Spring Hill by 27 strokes," Coach Nicole Wiehl stated.

"This is the lowest team score a team of mine has ever had. Jaxcen Farren also had her best score of the year with a 112. Freshman Ally Duke is a hard worker and making the right improvements to improve her back 9," Wiehl added.

"This team is very determined. I can't wait to see what they do at regionals on Monday," Wiehl said.

The Bulldogs had

Regionals yesterday at Independence Country Club in Independence.

Results can be found at www.kshsaa.org to see if any Bulldog golfers qualified for the State meet next Monday in Hutchinson.

Bulldogs pick up road win against Oz

BY KEVIN GAINES THE ANDERSON COUNTY REVIEW

OSAWATOMIE - The Anderson County Bulldogs (2-4) pick up a road victory against Osawatomie (0-6) on Friday night with an impressive 42-18 victory.

The Bulldogs seized control early on and used that momentum to pull away throughout the game.

Bo Dilliner scampered in from 17 yards out with 9:28 remaining to open the scoring and after the Dallas Higginbotham extra point the Bulldogs led 7-0.

It took just over 3 minutes before the Bulldogs struck again, this time Logan Allen broke free for a 30 yard touchdown run with 6:05 left in the first quarter to take a 14-0 lead following the extra point.

It would be Osawatomie's turn to answer as they got on the board with a 6 yard touchdown run late in the first quarter to cut the lead to 14-6 after the extra point attempt was blocked.

Allen helped make sure any momentum Oz had going for them was quickly halted. On the first play of the second quarter, Allen ran it in from 10 yards out.

Following a successful 2-point conversion, the Bulldogs led 22-6.

Dilliner snuck in for another touchdown with 7:05 left to forge ahead even further and open up a 30-6 lead, which would remain until halftime.

Oz would connect for the first touchdown of the second half with a touchdown pass that cut the lead to 30-12.

Allen would add the next two touchdowns, one late in the third quarter and then the second early on in the fourth to put the Bulldogs up 42-12.

Osawatomie would tack on a late touchdown in the final 2 minutes of the game to account for the final score of 42-18.

Next up for the Bulldogs is a game at home this coming Friday night against Prairie View. Prairie View enters the game 5-1 overall. They beat Osawatomie 55-6 in late September.

Osage City ruins Viking homecoming

BY KEVIN GAINES THE ANDERSON COUNTY REVIEW

RICHMOND - The Central Heights Vikings just couldn't get on track in a 41-8 drubbing at home on homecoming night to the Osage City Indians.

Osage City moved to 6-0 on the season, while allowing 5 of their 6 opponents to 8 points or fewer including 3 shutouts.

The loss dropped the Vikings to 2-4, with their last two losses to teams that are still undefeated.

Christian

Ethan Prasko gave the Communion Meditation for Youth Sept. 30. He read 1 Corinthians 11:23-29 and reminded we need to make sure and examine ourselves before taking communion as this is the New Covenant between us and God, and that there are things that we can do to break or make stronger our relationship with God. Pastor Chase Riebel gave the sermon over the 4th week of the Believe series and titled it

"The Inspired Word of God", and asked "How do I know God and his will for my life?". We need to take time to listen and to obey God, even when it doesn't make sense, and spend time regularly in God's word. God tells us in the Bible what is required of us to be His followers. Simon Peter questioned Jesus many times, and even got rebuked by Jesus on multiple occasions. He messed up, but he listened and learned by doing so, just as we should continue to do. 2 Timothy 3:16 reminds us that all scripture is inspired by God, used to teach and correct us.

Men's Bible study Tuesday morning 7 a.m. Wednesday at 5:30 p.m. will be a meal and prayer time at the parsonage, youth "Believe" study will begin at 7 p.m. (kids are welcome to come hang out at 4:30). Our "Believe" small groups are up and running with four groups to choose from. Books are available for purchase at the church. Groups will be held on Sunday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights. The youth will have a garage sale during the city wide garage sales Oct. 5-6. If you have items to donate, please bring them to the church. Men's work day at the church will also be the 6th. Church potluck breakfast is Oct. 7 at 9:30 a.m., and Working Wonders will meet on Monday, Oct. 8 at 7 p.m.

Cowboy Church

Sunday Sept. 30 High Point Cowboy Church welcomed guest, Scott Coon, Texarkana, Arkansas. Speaking at the 9 a.m. service, following the opening announcements and praise through music and song, Mr. Coon focused on Genesis 1:26-28 and 2:7. God made man in His own image and likeness; then, the first thing God did for man (vs. 28) is He 'blessed' them. He breathed His own essence into man giving him the ability to fulfill God's instructions to be fruitful (productive), multiply (expand goodness of God), replenish the earth and have control over the wild animals.

Pastor Leo and Kathy Ramsey led the book study following the morning service in the absence of Ron Thompson.

UMC

Scripture presented Sept. 30 at the United Methodist Church service was Psalm 124: 1-8, Esther 7: 1-6, 8-10, 9: 20-22, James 5: 13-20, and Mark 9: 38-50. Due to the absence of minister Dorothy Welch, Austin Hendrix presented the sermon.

City Council

The August meeting was approved Sept. 26 and was opened with the budget hearing of which there was no opposition. Reports made: some cold patch has been put down but would like to get more from the county and possibly borrow their roller; chlorine smell coming from burn out at the water works report; parks and recreation all mowed, Colony Day ball tournament was canceled, one tree at park died and would like to borrow a tree spade to plant a bigger tree.

Auditor presented options for raising water and sewer rates. He informed council from his research the current funds will be depleted in about a year. City Attorney Jesse Randall will prepare resolutions raising the water to $20.00 for the first 1,000 gal and $6.50 per each addition 1,000 gal. Sewer rates will be $34.00 for the first 1,000 gal of water usage and $6.50 for each additional 1,000 gal for each additional 1,000 gal of water usage averaged from Jan., Feb., and March usage.

Superintendent Tim Dietrich informed the council of different options he found on mowers. Members agreed to purchase a 72 in. cut Country Clipper mower from Heck Small Engine Repair for $9143.28. Final price was $9,000 with an additional $57.00 for additional three blades.

A citizen voiced concern over people speeding down the streets. She would like to see speed limit signs put up. She was informed there are speed signs but they are being ignored. She stated she has seen certain vehicles speeding and driving with open containers. Council recommend she call the sheriff and take pictures as the city marshal only works part time.

Mayor Hobbs explained a complaint the city marshal had on junk cars. If one person was going to be cited for nuisance then all the untagged cars should be cited. Council would like the marshal to make a list.

Mayor Hobbs spoke on the concerns of the city marshal concerning unrestrained children on golf carts. The safety of the children was discussed considering the people who are not following the speed limits. Tim Dietrich submitted a building permit for the addition of a porch, which was approved by members. A citizen questioned why he was singled out to receive a nuisance complaint on his property. He was informed there were others working on fixing their nuisances but the city had received a complaint on his property and it was investigated by the mayor and marshal. It was agreed to have the October meeting on Oct. 24 due to Halloween. Monthly bills of $28,893.95 for the month were signed upon approval for the month of August.

KANSAS ATTORNEY GENERAL

Sarah Swain (D)

I'm Sarah Swain and I'm the Democratic nominee for Attorney General. As a third-generation Kansan, I grew up in rural Kansas, the daughter of a disabled Vietnam veteran.

As a child, I watched my parents struggle to put food on the table for me and my five siblings. Watching my parents struggle inspired me to attend law school and eventually embark on a career as a criminal defense attorney. For the past 17 years I have been fighting for the people of Kansas, and I look forward to using the Office of Attorney General to continue fighting for the rights of all Kansans, not just those with vested interests or deep pockets. Things need to change in Kansas. The failed Brownback tax experiment has left our economy in shambles. Our schools are underfunded and our teachers are underpaid. The children of Kansas deserve better. As Attorney General, I will work tirelessly to fully fund our public schools.

I will fight for access to healthcare for all Kansans, instead of pursuing lawsuits that seek to enact roadblocks to affordable healthcare and that ultimately jeopardize the health of many of our most vulnerable citizens, including veterans and children. It's time to take Kansas in a new direction. I support the legalization of marijuana and ending the war on drugs. I will work closely with the legislature to enact both sensible cannabis policies and expansion of the industrial hemp market. Sensible marijuana/hemp policies will undoubtedly provide a huge financial boost to our economy and might just save Kansas farmers.

Elect an Attorney General who will work for you. The big guys already have plenty of lawyers, I will work for the people. If you're tired of business as usual, vote for me, Sarah Swain, on November 6.

Election 2018

Derek Schmidt (R)

The Kansas Attorney General's most important job, as the chief law enforcement official for Kansas, is to enforce the law as it is written. A critical responsibility for the attorney general is to focus on priorities important for Kansans. Our key priorities include:

Consumer Protection and Fighting Fraud: We've recovered more than $800 million dollars for consumers and taxpayers - by far, a new record for the attorney general's office.

Fighting Human Trafficking: We've worked with the Legislature to strengthen our laws and make sure law enforcement and others are properly trained. According to Shared Hope, a respected international anti-trafficking organization, Kansas has improved from an "F" grade to an "A" in our anti-trafficking efforts.

Fighting Crimes Against Children: That includes leading the effort to establish the Child Victims Unit and the new Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force at the KBI.

Protecting Older Kansans From Abuse: The number of Kansans age 65 and older is projected to double over the next generation. So we've combined resources with other state agencies to more effectively combat crimes that target seniors. We're making it a key priority to get out in front of this demographic change.

Standing Against Federal Bureaucratic Overreach: We continue to challenge illegal federal agency actions by Washington bureaucrats who think they know better than Kansans how to govern our state. This includes blocking the illegal "Waters of the U.S." regulation from taking effect in Kansas and challenging illegal provisions of the Affordable Care Act, also known as "Obamacare," including some of its unlawful taxes and command-and-control mandates.

Thank you for allowing me the honor of serving as your attorney general. I'm asking for your vote for re-election so that we can keep building on these and similar priorities for Kansans.

YOUR VOTE COUNTS

KANSAS INSURANCE COMMISSIONER

Nathaniel McLaughlin (D)

Greetings, I am Nathaniel McLaughlin. Candidate for Kansas Commissioner of Insurance.

I have the business acumen and professional ethics to represent the citizens of Kansas and the Kansas in a professional, ethical and honorable manner. My core values are hard work, faith in God, and respect for my neighbor and my country.

The mission statement of the Kansas Commissioner of Insurance office reads to regulate, advocate, and educate. Regulating can be done in a spirit of cooperation and partnership. One of my primary objectives when elected will be to reduce the number of Kansas adults in the age group 19-64 who have no health insurance.

America's economic system is capitalism not socialism. Our military cemeteries and countless others are the final resting place for many who gave the ultimate sacrifice to protect our right to pursue prosperity via capitalism. Capitalism is sustained best in private markets, not government controlled markets. Part of my four year strategic plan will be to advocate for private market solutions in addition to Medicaid expansion where appropriate to address the needs of those that cannot afford health insurance. I have already ascertained a method to afford expansion without adding to the tax burden. For I am against any tax increase. Does not matter if the increase tax is sales, property, or income. The tax burden on Kansas citizens is already too high.

KANSAS STATE TREASURER

Marci Francisco (D)

I'm Marci Francisco, a 4th generation Kansan, and a former City Commissioner and Mayor of Lawrence. I was elected to the Kansas Senate in 2004. I am running for State Treasurer this year because I have the knowledge and passion required to help reverse the financial damage wrought in Kansas during the last eight years.

I have a lifetime of experience with numbers and finance, including my career in facilities at the University of Kansas and 30 years working with my husband in a small business. I've been the treasurer for two non-profits and chair of the endowment committee for my congregation.

The State Treasurer should be the independent watchdog of the people's money and know how to invest wisely and spend carefully. My opponent and I both served in the Kansas Senate from 2013 to 2017 making it easy to compare our records; while I voted against Brownback's tax plan, he voted to support it. As Treasurer I will continue advocating for fiscal responsibility.

I will make administrative transparency a priority and ensure that the Treasurer's annual reports are published on a website so both the legislature and members of the public can learn about the State's financial health.

As Treasurer, I will be an active Trustee on the KPER Board staunchly advocating to reduce the unfunded liability of the program. I will also prioritize improving the state's Learning Quest savings plans and moreover, will work with the Legislature to establish an education savings plan benefiting every Kansas child.

I will also work with the State Board of Education to create a robust financial literacy curriculum for our public schools because only when individuals and families are financially secure will Kansas be financially secure.

I'm Marci Francisco - I ask for your vote in advance or on November 6th.

Jake LaTurner (R)

I'm Jake LaTurner, your Kansas Treasurer. I was born and raised in a small mining community called Galena, in the far southeast corner of the state. As the proud product of Kansas Public Schools and son of a teacher, I love our state and its people. My wife Suzanne and I often talk about how we can't imagine a better place to raise our four children; Ava, Joe, Maggie and Gus. Afterall, the LaTurner's have been here for 7 generations.

Since becoming your Treasurer, we've returned more Unclaimed Property to Kansans in a single year than any previous Treasurer—over $30 million.

I'm proud to say that my office launched and expanded the Kansas ABLE Savings Program, which helps individuals living with a disability save for their future. In fact, this last legislative session, we worked closely with disability rights advocates and successfully passed legislation to give tax incentives to individuals investing in ABLE Accounts. Additionally, Kansas has one of the nation's "Top 5" highest performing education savings programs, according to Forbes. Also, my administration won a key victory in federal court to ensure the federal government lives up to promises made to patriotic Americans during the World War II Era.

All of this was done with a reduced budget and staff because taxpayers deserve that kind of service. As the youngest Statewide official in America, I've put a focus on meeting and exceeding what Kansans have come to expect from their State Treasurer.

I'm honored to have the endorsement of the Kansas Association of Realtors, and the support of the Kansas Bankers Association, Kansas Society of CPA's and many others. However, the support of everyday Kansans like yourselves is what truly matters most to me.

Again, I'm Jake LaTurner and I humbly ask for your vote on November 6th.

Viki Schmidt (R)

My name is Vicki Schmidt, I am a lifelong Kansan and Republican. I was born and raised in Wichita and now reside in Topeka with my husband/high school sweetheart, Mike. We have two sons and two grandsons.

I have worked over 40 years as a local pharmacist and deal with Kansas health insurance problems every day.

I've seen first-hand the effect rising healthcare costs have on Kansas families and seniors.

I also serve my friends and neighbors in the Kansas Senate, where I've fought insurance companies to ensure coverage for children with autism and for coverage parity for telemedicine services.

I have a track record of standing up to career politicians and lobbyists to fight for the people I represent. I plan to take that same fight to the Insurance Commissioner's office and I ask for your vote on Tuesday, November 6th.
