The tour is a public effort in an area of the state where Governor Kelly did not fare well in the 2018 election. Kelly defeated controversial illegal immigration and voting rights activist Kris Kobach, who was Kansas Secretary of State at the time. Kelly won only 9 of Kansas' 105 counties, most of them in urban areas and college towns. Still, Kelly said the rural tour had no political objectives and was focused on helping improve and area typically neglected in policy decisions in Topeka.

City plans rec staff addition in budget

Expansion would allow for more services and activities at center

BY DANE HICKS THE ANDERSON COUNTY REVIEW

GARNETT — City officials say the hiring of an additional staffer in the parks and recreation department as a health and wellness coordinator will help expand the department's offering to city residents.

The position is one of two new staff additions city manager Chris Weiner included in a draft of the city's 2020 budget which commissioners are in the process of evaluating, some version of which is likely to be approved in coming weeks.

Garnett Parks and Recreation Director Phil Bures told commissioners in his departmental report last week the addition of recreation coordinator Tyler Wolken had been of huge benefit to the department in terms of addressing some new developments at the center. Bures said Wolken's help had given him time to work on the formation of a league with community rec centers in Louisburg and Osawatomie to offer fall soccer, a more competitive volleyball league and add a boost to the flag football program. He said the addition of a wellness director would enable more program development.

"If and when we are able to get a health and wellness coordinator on staff, we will be able to focus on every aspect of recreation that we have to offer in the community," Bures told commissioners. "The things that we could do are endless, and I look forward to the future."

Bures estimated the cost of the new position at $30,000 annually depending on the level of experience the candidate already had. He said the H&W coordinator would be in charge of the day to day operations of the recreation center as well as setting up programming. Other classes on nutrition could also be offered and beginner training programs for weight training and other existing fitness equipment at the center.

NEWS IN BRIEF

LOCAL AREA IN EXCESSIVE HEAT WATCH WEDNESDAY - SATURDAY

Anderson County as well as numerous other cities and counties throughout eastern Kansas have been placed under an excessive heat watch by the National Weather Service running from Wednesday, July 17, through Saturday, July 20. Afternoon temperatures will remain in the middle 90s to low 100s each afternoon with heat indices ranging from near 105 to 110. Heat-related illnesses are possible for those spending a prolonged amount of time outdoors or those who are more susceptible to heat, such as young children and the elderly. An excessive heat watch means a prolonged period of hot temperatures is expected. The combination of hot temperatures and high humidity will combine to create a dangerous situation in which heat illness is possible. Drink plenty of fluids, stay in an air-conditioned room, stay out of the sun, and check up on relatives and neighbors. If working outside take frequent breaks, drink water often and work in evening hours if possible.

dure designed to halt the activities of young criminals while their infractions are still relatively minor - in the Andrew County Jail.

Police on Friday located a person of interest, Danielle Lee Dakon, in the St. Joseph area and were in the process of interviewing her in the ongoing investigation, St. Joe police told the Review. The case is being treated as a homicide. According to The St. Joseph News-Press, witnesses said a car left the area at the time the incident occurred but were unsure if it was connected to the incident.

Police said they were unsure if Drimmel lived at the residence or just stayed there from time to time.

Drimmel attended Anderson County Junior-Senior High School and was a member of the 2012-2013 wrestling team. He was a member of the Class of 2016, but the Review was unable to confirm that he graduated from ACJSHS.

Police said anyone with information should call Detective Mull at 816-271-4622 or the Tips Hotline 816-238-TIPS (4877).

Romulo Lollato, Wheat and Forages Extension Specialist with K-State Research and Extension, reported yields in south central and central Kansas have been highly variable (due to planting dates and moisture surpluses that drowned out quite a few acres), while out west, farmers are consistently seeing above average yields. Some areas in western Kansas are still seeing some green wheat because it was late getting planted. Test weights throughout the state continue to hold steady at 60 pounds per bushel and above.

"Since September 1, the central part of the state has received over 60 inches of rain, and the rain got in the way of grain production early on," Lollato said.

RNC sandbagged Kobach

Everyone else wants the names of the FBI officials who approved the unprecedented law enforcement dragnet against low-level Trump aides in the middle of a presidential campaign. I want the names of the staffers at the Republican National Committee who prepared Trump's "backgrounders" on potential hires for the new administration. (I'm not interested in finding out who leaked them because I assume it was the Russians.)

When America is no more, future generations are going to want to know who murdered our country.

Below is a random selection of the idiotic quotes from the RNC's vetting document on Kris Kobach, when President Trump was considering him for secretary of the Department of Homeland Security. Instead of Kobach, who could have saved the country, Trump appointed a series of imbeciles, who managed to engineer the worst immigration crisis in the nation's history.

If this cretinous document had anything to do with Kobach being passed over, then there are specific people whose names we're going to need.

"Immigration Hardliner" The RNC seems to think "hardliner" means: "supports current federal law, on the books, passed over generations by Republicans and Democrats, negotiating compromises and getting their bills signed into law by a series of presidents in both political parties."

"Would you ever allow your support of policies that 'strengthen' immigration enforcement (to) conflict with bipartisan compromise legislation negotiated by a Trump administration?"

Who wrote this question? John McCain? Jeb? Even after Trump won, the RNC proceeded as if nothing had happened and their goal was to pass a new Gang of Eight "Comprehensive Immigration" bill. They wanted Kobach to swear fidelity to a policy that had just been soundly rejected by the voters and their own party.

"Given your history of campaigning on immigration politics, do you believe you have an ability to strike the appropriate tone ...?"

Tone! Democrats routinely call Republicans racists, liars, warmongers, homophobes, haters, rapists, etc., but somehow only conservatives are ever accused of having a "tone" problem.

GUEST EDITORIAL

ANNE COULTER, COMMENTATOR

Again, the RNC seems sublimely unaware of the entire 2016 election. Trump called Mexican immigrants rapists and won. But the RNC is worried about an erudite Midwesterner's "tone."

How's this tone? (Deleted) you, RNC. "Kobach is credited with helping draft the controversial immigration law allowing Arizona state and local officials to check the immigration status of individuals they stopped ..."

"Controversial" is what idiots say when they don't have a real complaint.

I can't be sure about all of them, but by my count, at least 300 of the 400 members of the current Democratic presidential field support slavery reparations, Medicare for all, free college tuition, eliminating I.C.E., transgenders in women's bathrooms, abortion at 8.9 months, flinging open our borders and providing free dental care to illegals.

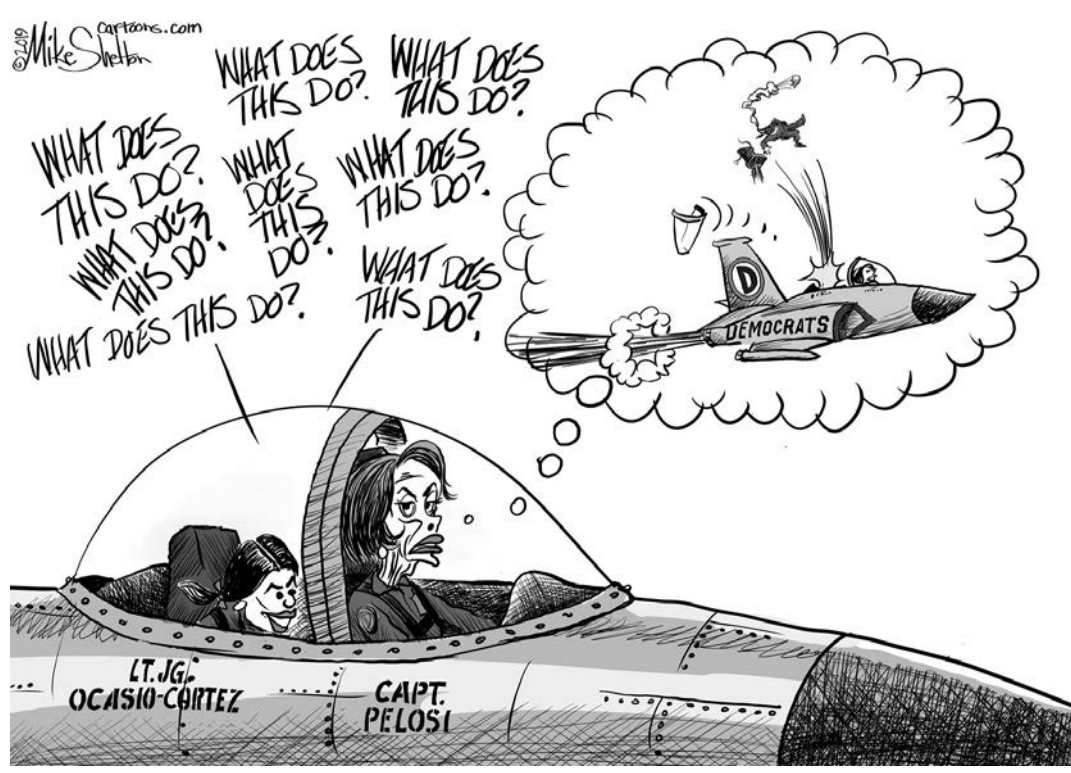

But according to the RNC, supporting immigration laws currently on the books is "controversial."

I note that it wasn't "controversial" at the Supreme Court. "... (much of the law was struck down by the Supreme Court in 2012)."

The morons at the RNC aren't even familiar with the landmark Supreme Court ruling they're citing to bash Kobach.

Dear Useless, Incompetent Twits: The law -- I mean, the "controversial" law -- "allowing Arizona state and local officials to check the immigration status of individuals they stopped" ... was UPHOLD BY A UNANIMOUS SUPREME COURT. (Other parts of the law, not mentioned

I love it when our resident poor, disenfranchised snowflake Democrat calls the Phone Forum to bash Trump. It's very entertaining to watch you living your tortured life. It must be torture for someone like you to watch all the many successes in the country's economy, more jobs for blacks and other minorities, the new fear and respect for our country on the world stage, better trade deals and Trump working to protect us against hundreds of thousands of illegal immigrants, i.e. future Democrat voters. This is what it looks like when a president believes in our country instead of working to tear it down and discriminate against rich whitey. Now, be nice and eat your peas and maybe for Christmas Santa will bring you a new FDR action figure. Thank you.

The fireworks were beautiful.

My husband and I would like to thank the electrical crew that came out on July 4 to get our electricity back on. We also want to thank the city for taking care of the ruts in the corner lot that goes across Seventh Avenue July 9 and keeping the lot mowed. Thank you.

You Kansas Republicans who refused to support Kris Kobach for governor, and ushered in Laura Kelly, should understand the plague you've visited on the state. She gets to pick a new Supreme Court judge. The same Court that extorts money from the Legislature for more bloated K-12 spending and found a right to abortion where none had existed. This is on top of confiscating the Trump Tax Cut from state taxpayers, increased K-12 spending, adding LGBTQ to our vocabularies, and expanding abortion services. Think you'll take your vote seriously in 2022?

'Green New Deal' is radical liberal lunacy

America's farmers and ranchers not only feed our country but feed the world.

Radical ideas like the Green New Deal would deal a devastating blow to our farmers and ranchers in Kansas and all throughout the breadbasket. As a member of the House Energy Action Team (HEAT), led by Minority Whip Steve Scalise, I support the development, deployment, and efficient use of all-of-the-above energy resources.

Along with the estimated $93,000,000,000 trillion-dollar price tag, this proposal would be a gross over-reach of the federal government and do nothing to curb the tide of climate change.

Big government programs are not the answer here and would do more harm than good to our farmers and ranchers and natural energy production. Among the many reasons we cannot allow this lunacy to become law is the fact that a takeover of the American economy and way of life is not the answer to combating climate change.

To eliminate natural gas from the agricultural tool kit, as proposed in the Green New Deal, would be to destroy prosperity and any hope for a sustainable and clean agricultural industry.

Consumers would not have access to healthy foods at an affordable price because farmers and ranchers would no longer have access to sustainable and reliable energy sources. The farmers and ranchers across our great nation are looking for public policy solutions that refine our national energy policy to take advantage of our vast domestic resources and allowing the market-driven options to thrive.

NATIONAL COMMENTARY

Congress' role here should not be an extreme proposal that would significantly raise costs for American families. Rather, it should be implementing policies that support innovation in all forms of energy, market-driven solutions, and stimulate domestic production to reduce reliance on foreign markets.

Should energy costs skyrocket, it would impact low-income and middle-class Americans the most. According to a 2016 study from the American Coalition for Clean Coal Electricity, the poorest Americans spend a whopping 22 percent of their household budget on energy.

Decreasing access to reliable energy infrastructure, the delivery of oil, natural gas, and electricity in underserved and rural communities will negatively impact prospects and ability for growth. We must address this issue by implementing policies that do not hinder the free market principles that have allowed our country to flourish.

Energy issues also hold some national security concerns. Since the election of President Trump and his administrations' implementation of all the above energy policy, the Organization of the Petroleum Exporting Countries' (OPEC) influence has dwindled, causing dictatorial regimes who rely on energy as their main exports are faltering. When it comes to energy, I am an all-of-the-above guy. I believe markets, fueled by the consumer, should decide how to use the energy and what is the most efficient and cost-effective energy source.

I am proud to stand alongside Whip Scalise and members of the HEAT team in finding true, realistic, common-sense solutions to addressing the climate while not upending our entire democracy and the social-economic status in the world.

Simply put, women's soccer doesn't earn as much

The women of the U.S. national soccer team are famous for being extraordinary athletes, repeat world champions -- and plaintiffs.

The team's lawsuit alleging pay discrimination against the U.S. Soccer Federation has done much to define its identity. A nearly perfect run through the World Cup has been widely interpreted as vindication of the merits of its case, so much so that fans chanted "equal pay" after the U.S. victory in the final over the Netherlands and booed the head of FIFA, the sponsor of the World Cup, during the trophy ceremony.

It's not to take anything away from the women's achievement -- they never trailed the entire tournament -- to note that the equal-pay complaint is almost entirely bunk.

It is true that the American women, who sweat and practice as much as their male compatriots (perhaps more, given their superior results), don't make as much. But the women's game isn't as popular or profitable, which fundamentally drives pay.

The total prize money for the women's 2019 World Cup was $30 million, with the champion taking away about $4 million. The total prize money for the men's 2018 World Cup was $400 million, with the champions winning $38 million.

This seems blatantly unfair, until you take into account the completely different viewership and revenue from the two events. FIFA raked in more than $6 billion from the 2018

NATIONAL COMMENTARY

RICH LOWRY, King Features Syndicate

men's World Cup. The women's 2019 World Cup has been projected, when all is said and done, to make about $130 million.

The women's tournament this year may have garnered about a billion viewers across all platforms, nothing to sneeze at, but the 2018 men's World Cup had more than a billion viewers just for the final game.

The lawsuit's explanation for a smaller audience for the women's team is what it calls "manufactured revenue depression," a deliberate effort by the federation to squelch the women's reach and undercut their ticket prices. Perhaps the federation should have done more, and can do more, to promote the women's game, but the smaller women's audience can't be the work of one organization.

Another element of pay for women's and men's players is their play for professional leagues, where the scale of the audiences is, again, vastly different.

The National Women's Soccer League has two strong teams that average more than 10,000 fans per game, but the other seven teams in the league average fewer than 5,000. Sky Blue FC, based in Piscataway, New Jersey, averages 1,432.

By way of comparison, the worst of the men's Major League Soccer teams, the Chicago Fire, averages 11,417. The best-attended team, Atlanta United, has drawn roughly 70,000 people for four home games this season, about the total attendance for all NWSL games so far.

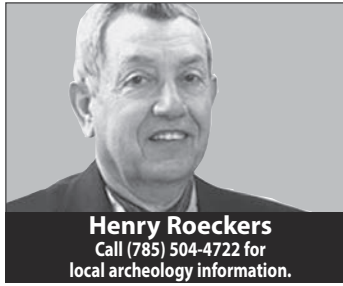

The women and men have two different collective bargaining agreements, and different World Cup hoops to jump through, so making direct apple-to-apple comparisons is complicated. It's hard to argue, though, with the simple approach the women say that they have proposed in the past -- revenue sharing based on how much money they bring in.

There's risk to this arrangement if the women underperform, but this group is nothing if not self-confident, and so far has always delivered.

DIGGING UP THE PAST

Tuesday 11 June 2019
Very cool again this morning, 51 degrees and wind out of the north. Some of our find's today were: a very large Mano (grinding stone), it was a combination grinding and nutting stone, a bone hoe, several other bone tools, southwest pottery shards and several little arrowheads. A very windy day in the field.

On the way out of the field this afternoon, I misjudged my steps going down a small hill and I went down head over heels. A parked car at the bottom broke my fall. I ended up with one small cut on my right leg and there will be a couple of bruises by morning. I ate dinner at Wendy's and then attended a Talk: "Peverly Petroglyphs" by Kent Sallee. At 11:35 pm we had a terrible wind/rain/hail storm. Our hail was only pea sized, however just 5 miles away they reported ping-pong ball size.

Wednesday 12 June 2019
I woke up a little sore from yesterday's fall. It's a cool morning once again 55 degrees. A few leaves laying on the ground from the hail. On the way to the field, I noticed some wheat down and many fields are flooded again.

Findings today included: another Mano, a stone knife, three hide scrapers, several large bison bones and 2 obsidian arrowheads. A beautiful day in the field. My friend Mo Floyd and I went to Bible Study at the Calvary Baptist Church in Sterling, Ks. Several of us ate dinner at Yimmy-Yammy's Chinese Buffet. Very Good.

Thursday 13 June 2019
Fifty degrees, cool-clear. I saw three young deer on my way to the field this morning. It turned very windy this afternoon. We received word that two semis were involved in a terrible wreck on Hwy 56 and that we may have to detour back to Lyons this evening.

Some nice finds today: a large bone awl, bison scapula hoe, obsidian point, more hide scrapers and lots of pottery shards. At 4:00 p.m. Hwy 56 was back open for traffic.

I went to the DQ for dinner and then attended a talk: "Stepping Back" The 1981 KATP at Kermit Hayes #4 (14RC306).

Historical Society presents the history of county's Catholic churches

Gayla Corley presented History of the Seven Catholic Churches of Anderson County to the Historical Society following a dinner meeting at the museum on July 11th.

Early settlers in 1855 organized St. Boniface at Scipio. It was followed by St. Patrick's at Emerald, Holy Angels in Garnett, St. John the Baptist in Greeley, St. Teresa of Avila in Westphalia, Holy Cross northwest of Westphalia, and Sacred Heart in Colony.

Parishes held their first services in homes, served by visiting priests, while churches were being built. The first structures were frame and were often destroyed by fire. As the communities grew, larger stone or brick churches were built. The stone for the church at Scipio was cut on site. The limestone for the church at Westphalia was quarried north of the town. Westphalia's 1890 church was the first structure built from Westphalia Brick, produced at the local kiln. It was reported that 1,000 people attended the dedication of that church in 1891.

While most early catholic settlers were of German descent, those around Emerald were Irish. Their first church was an 1859 log cabin. A stone church was built in 1860. It was replaced by a brick church in 1895-96. When the church burned in 1939, Bing Crosby donated a statue for the restoration that remains in the church today. The parish has held to its Irish heritage and is well known for its annual St. Patrick's Day dinner complete with traditional food and music.

Active parishes remain in Scipio, Emerald, Garnett, Greeley, and Westphalia. The Holy Cross families began attending services in Westphalia when the brick church opened in 1891. Colony's Sacred Heart closed its church and school, and the church building was torn down in 1961.

During the business meeting, President Kenny Kellstadt reported that renovations at the Harris House carriage house are almost complete. Medical Grant Project coordinator Renee Pagenkoph reported that work is proceeding with cleaning and labeling of medical equipment. Items are being logged into a data base. She invited anyone interested in helping with the work to contact her at the museum.

All interested in Anderson County history are invited to visit the museum Tuesday through Friday afternoons from 1:00 to 4:00. The next meeting will be 6:30 p.m. August 8, at the museum, with a program about the history of the Anderson County Fair.

2009: Storms pummel area causing heavy damage

July 2009

County commissioners last week scuttled a local economic development incentive program which rebated a portion of taxes to those who made major investments in blighted areas of Garnett and Greeley. The Neighborhood Revitalization Program was initiated in Garnett by the Garnett Area Chamber of Commerce in 2001. It encouraged investors to put money into business, industrial, or residential properties, including new construction, and paid back 95 percent of any resulting tax increase on those properties.

July 1999

A Memorial Day weekend fire that destroyed a downtown business in Garnett has prompted the temporary location of the Garnett Area Chamber of Commerce offices to Donna's School of Dance. Chamber director Stacy Schulte said the office would be temporarily located at the new location until insurance adjusters had forwarded repair reports on the old structure. The chamber's office was heavily smoke damaged and incurred water damages and heat damage from the fire next door at Brock-Do-Jujitsu, which gutted that building.

THAT WAS THEN

July 1989

Anderson Countians and residents of the State of Kansas will soon notice the price of purchases and gas going up due to the passage of new state highway programs. The taxes will go into effect to start bringing in revenue to pay for the estimated $2.65 billion dollar improvement plan. Currently county shoppers pay five cents per every dollar in sales tax for purchased good. Four cents is the state sales tax and the other penny is a county addition. The highway funding plan adds an additional one-quarter of one cent to already existing local sales tax structures and will raise Anderson County's sales tax burden to 5.25 cents per dollar.

July 1979

The sale of fireworks must be from an established place of business in Garnett as city statutes prohibit the sale of fireworks from any temporary stands located in parking lots, residential areas, or any other place other than an established business. This year the city has also outlawed the sale or use of bottle rockets. Other illegal fireworks include blank cartridges, torpedoes, skyrockets, or other fireworks or explosives that are illegal by state law.

July 1919

A wave of crime, confined principally to automobile stealing is expected to sweep over this section of the country within the next few weeks. Police of the larger cities are warning the local authorities in the towns and villages to be on the alert for auto thieves who will work on farms during the harvest time. It is said to be practically certain that many professional gangs will spli it up into small parties, get into the country districts long enough to spot certain cars, work in the harvest fields, and send information to the various thieves' headquarters. These spotters will be followed by the men who are to do the actually stealing from the farmers. No district will be safe and no community exempt.

Colony Christian Church news & schedule

Darren McGhee gave the Communion Meditation on "The Code" by Ron Wilson, that talked about the Underground Railroad during the 1860's. People that were sympathetic to the slaves used a "code" by using the quilts they hung up outside. Examples of the symbols they used were: wagon wheel told the slaves to gather up, monkey wrench told them to gather tools, bear claw told them to follow a wilderness trail, etc. (This was very interesting. I would encourage everyone to read up on this.)

In John 3:1-8, Nicodemus speaks to Jesus about all the wondrous, miraculous signs that he had performed. The sign of baptism tells others that we've been born again, the resurrection tells us that Jesus is alive and will return again. Pastor Chase Riebel gave the sermon on "The Plumb Line". God told Amos that he would use a plumb line to judge how "straight" the Israelites were walking with God, that he would no longer ignore all their sins. The Israelites were not following God's standard. They were taking advantage of the poor and had become wicked. Deuteronomy 28 told them that if they didn't walk with God, curses would overtake and destroy them. In the New Testament, Jesus became the new standard by which to live our lives, the new plumb line to see if we're walking straight with God. Victory is ours thru Jesus Christ! (Ref: Amos 1:1, 4:1, 7:1-9 & 14; Deut 28: 45-48 & 65-67, Ephesians 4:13, Romans 8:33-37) Hear this sermon in its entirety at <http://www.colony-christianchurch.org>.

Case No. 2019 CV 000021

PURSUANT TO CHAPTER 60 AND 79 OF KANSAS STATUTES ANNOTATED

P E T I T I O N

COMES NOW the plaintiff, by and through James R. Campbell, Anderson County Counsel, and for its cause of action against the defendants alleges and states as follows:

1. Plaintiff is a body politic and corporate, and is a duly organized and existing county of the State of Kansas. A resolution, heretofore adopted by plaintiff pursuant to K.S.A. 79-2801, as amended, authorized the institution of this proceeding to foreclose tax liens against real property in Anderson County, Kansas, and attached as Exhibit "A". Said liens and real property are more specifically described in Exhibit "B", which is attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

2. All requirements of law pertaining to assessment, levy, taxation, publication and proof thereof, sale and purchase in the name of Anderson County, Kansas, as prescribed by K.S.A. 79-2301 et seq., and every other legal condition precedent to judicial foreclosure of said tax liens, have been performed and satisfied. The taxes have not been paid as required by law, and all the within described real estate is subject to foreclosure and sale for delinquent taxes.

3. The caption of this Petition is incorporated herein and made a part hereof by reference. The persons named as defendants therein are the owners or supposed owners, and persons having or claiming to have an interest in the lands described herein, so far as plaintiff is able to ascertain, but the exact nature of such ownership and interest is unknown to the plaintiff.

4. Plaintiff further alleges that it has diligently inquired as to the residences and whereabouts of the defendants herein and, except as set forth in Exhibit "B" attached hereto, is unable to state the residences and whereabouts of the defendants, and each of them, or whether any of them are dead, other than indicated thereon, and, if they or any of them be dead, plaintiff is unable to ascertain the names, residences, whereabouts and identity of the heirs, executors, administrators, devisees, trustees, conservators and assigns of such defendants other than as indicated on Exhibit "B". Upon diligent inquiry plaintiff is unable to ascertain whether the defendant corporations named herein are domestic or foreign corporations, nor their legal status, nor whether they continue to have legal existence and officers, nor the names and whereabouts of the successors, trustees or assigns, if any, of such corporations as may be dissolved. All of the defendants herein named, and those claiming under or through them, should be required to appear herein, so that all claims, estates, titles and interests may be determined by the decree of this Court and so that the tax lien therein to be foreclosed may be adjudged a good, valid and perfect first and prior lien upon each tract, lot or piece of real estate described herein, for the taxes, together with interest, charges, penalties and costs thereon.

5. Exhibit "B" is a schedule containing information pertinent to this proceeding and is attached hereto, incorporated herein and made a part hereof by reference. Each tract, lot and piece of real estate intended to be included in this foreclosure proceeding is described as a separate item upon Exhibit "B", and that each such tract described upon Exhibit "B" also carries a key number by which it is identified in the files of the Anderson County Treasurer, Anderson County Appraiser and Anderson County Clerk.

6. Said lands described in Exhibit "B" are all in Anderson County, Kansas. All of the descriptions used in Exhibit "B" are intended to indicate with ordinary and reasonable certainty the real estate intended to be included in this foreclosure proceeding.

7. Each item described upon Exhibit "B" is also subject to charges occasioned by this foreclosure proceeding and to an equitable portion of the costs of this proceeding to be fixed and determined by the Court herein.

8. The plaintiff's lien is for unpaid taxes on the real estate in questions and is a first and prior lien to the liens and claims of all of the defendants herein, including the unknown members of the classes set forth in the caption hereof. Plaintiff is unable to allege in greater detail the nature of extent of the claims of any of the defendants, and is unable to allege which, if any, of the defendants may be dead, and which, if any of the corporate defendants may be dissolved, and in the event of such death or dissolution, the plaintiff is unable to allege the names of the heirs, executors, administrators, devisees, trustees, conservators and assigns, if any of the decedent or the successors, trustees, and assigns of any dissolved corporation or the whereabouts of any of said persons, except as alleged herein. Plaintiff respectfully requests that each defendant and those claiming under or through any of the defendants herein, be required to appear in this cause and to assert what interest, if any, they or any of them have or claim to have in and to any of the real estate described herein so that all claims, estates, interest and titles may be determined by the decrees of this Court and so that the plaintiff's tax lien herein may be foreclosed against each parcel listed on Exhibit "B" and adjudged to be a good, valid and perfect first and prior lien upon each parcel.

9. Plaintiff is entitled to a decree of this Court determining the amount of taxes, charges, interest and penalties chargeable to each particular tract, lot and piece of real estate in such amount as the Court shall determine, and to judgment for costs herein equitably apportioned against each tract, lot and piece of real estate and to judgment for charges herein, and for judgment determining the owner or parties having an interest herein, and to a decree adjudging the amount so found to be due to be a first and prior lien upon each item of real estate described in Exhibit "B" and for an order directing that each item of real estate described upon Exhibit "B" be sold at public sale for the satisfaction of each lien and for other necessary relief.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff prays that the Court determine the amount of taxes, charges, interest and penalties chargeable to each particular tract, lot or piece of real estate described herein; the name of the owner or party having an interest therein and that the Court adjudge and decree the amount due to be a first and prior lien upon the real estate; that each defendant be required to appear and establish their claim, estate, title or interest in said property; and that the same be sold at public sale for the satisfaction of the lien, costs, charges and expenses of the proceedings and sale and for other necessary relief.

Pieces and Patches seeks pattern for wheelchair bags to make for donation

The Pieces and Patches Quilt Guild was called to order by President Mary Parrott on June 27, 2019 at 9:30 a.m. at the K-State Extension Office Conference Room.

President Mary entertained us by reading an article published in American Quilters Society magazine entitled "Why perfection is overrated," the highlight of which was "Done can be Perfect."

Roll call was answered by 23 members by giving your alternate quilters' name by playing a game that Chris Campbell posted on FACEBOOK. You determine your alternate quilters' first, middle and last name using letters of your name. As an example, Terrie started with her quilters' name Shuggly Hexie Quilter. Linda McAdam and Avery Binger (Connie Hatch's granddaughter) were guests.

The May 2019 minutes were approved as published in the newsletter.

Lynda Feuerborn passed out membership cards and then gave the Treasurer's report.

Member Marilynn Lolley sent us an announcement about the upcoming Osa Lane Quilt Show at the United Methodist Church in Lane, Ks. Hours Thursday August 1 from 4 to 8PM, Friday, August 2, from 10AM to 9PM, Saturday August 3 from 10AM to 3PM. There will be a trunk show featuring our member Lynn Wawrzewski at 1PM on Saturday August 3.

Committee Reports Program

Jeanette Gadelman reported that today's workshop is the Pioneer Woman Bag Class by Linda McAdam. Jeanette reported that the K-State extension office conference room will not be available for our meetings in July, August and September. Alternate sites were discussed and members will be notified in the Newsletter. There is no program planned for July. August is our annual luncheon and installation of officers.

The Quilting retreat in October 21, 22 and 23 is full.

Scholarship

Ruth read a heartwarming thank you note from our Scholarship winner Jenna Schmit.

Charity Quilts

Sandra took a fidget mat to Parkview Heights. She still has requests from Residential Living Center for 10 and from Guest Home Estates for 3. Burlington Life Care Center would like some wheelchair bags in size 18 x 22. If anyone has a pattern for making them please share with members.

2020 Opportunity Quilt

Judy Stukey has the completed quilt and will be taking it for quilting.

County Fair

Terrie Gifford reported that the online Fair Pre-Entry site is now open and working. Pre-entry must be completed by Friday July 19. After that you can enter your Open Class items July 29 from 1 to 6 PM at the fairgrounds. The website is <http://andersoncofair.fairentry.com>. Helen Ramsey will return to judge the Open Class quilts at 1PM Tuesday July 30. Terrie will have the fair work schedule for members to sign up at the July meeting. She reminded everyone the Challenge Block packets are available for $3 at Country Fabrics. Donna Sutton surprised us by showing her completed Challenge Block which members thought was very creative.

May Quilt Show Boutique

Jackie Gardner chaired the boutique committee for our May quilt show and had some post show business. It turns out that Carolyn Bennett had donated a stack of quilting supplies but they were put in the Senior Center office and no one knew they were there. Carolyn was hoping sale of these items would benefit the guild. Jackie brought the items to our meeting and offered them to members, many of whom promptly donated money to obtain the items. Thank you to Carolyn for helping our guild.

2019 Block of the Month

This was the month to show the third block of the month the pattern of which was a table runner. Sandra Moffatt made two, Lynn Wawrzewski made three, Donna Sutton made hers into a baby quilt, Judy Stukey made one, Cynthia Fletcher made one, and Terrie Gifford made hers into a tablecloth. Our Historian, Bonnie Deiter took a group picture for Terrie to post to our FACEBOOK page. Our guest Avery was asked to choose a number between 1 and 6, Cynthia Fletcher won the prize. Mary Parrott then presented our fourth block of the month called "Stained Glass Leaves" by Holly Daniels. She showed Sharon Rich's example done as a table topper and her own done as a tablerunner. Completed fourth block of the month is due at our August luncheon.

2019 Challenge

There were no completed challenges, but several members claim to be working on theirs.

August Luncheon

Carolyn Crupper reported that the committee would like to decorate the tables again this year with school supplies donated by members. Also, for a menu this year those whose last name begins with A-G are to bring entrees, H-M salad and N-Z dessert.

Nominating Committee

Bonnie Deiter announced the Slate of Candidates. They are President, Mary Parrott, Vice President Jackie Gardner, Treasurer Linda Feuerborn, Secretary Terrie Gifford, Newsletter Editor Connie Hatch and Historian Jeanette Gadelman.

Auditing Committee

Joleata Kent and Lynn Wawrzewski have volunteered to audit the books. They will receive the books after the July meeting and provide their report at the August meeting.

Old Business

Bonnie Deiter brought the stack of signature blocks that belonged to Agnes Alexander of Greeley that we had displayed at the May Quilt Show. The blocks were donated to us by Doris Ann (Alexander) Santeria of Wichita. The signatures on the blocks are names of previous members of the guild. Bonnie has been able to deliver a block or two to relatives and she asked members of the guild if they knew of any other relatives that could be contacted. There were several responses.

Secret Sister Gifts

Phyllis Gordon received a secret sister gift but was unable to attend today's meeting.

Show and Tell

Cynthia Fletcher showed more than 20 tablemats of various sizes using scrap fabrics. Jackie Gardner showed a Baby Quilt and a bed quilt machine quilted by Verna Garrett. Bonnie Deiter showed doilies, tablemats and handkerchiefs that had been crocheted by her mother. The items were white and Bonnie has been experimenting with dye and transformed them into colorful items. She also showed fabrics that she dyed using a technique called bleeding art tissue paper dyeing. She showed a Christmas tablerunner and machine quilted items using Ruler Work and Graffiti quilting. Sandra Moffatt showed a large red, white and black tablecloth with teal fabric borders. Vickie Hirt showed red, white and blue tablerunner and tablemats, a Bargello flag, pillow ticking rugs and six twilling blocks. Connie Hatch continues to show why she likes vintage blocks found at auctions, she used acquired appliqued Cat blocks to make a quilt. The blocks had yellowed and she shared her secret of using OxyClean to brighten them. She showed two hand embroidered pillows. Terrie Gifford showed her completed 2018 block of the month which was machine quilted by Jeanette Gadelman. Lynda Feuerborn showed her twilling blocks. Mary Parrott showed a 4th of July banner, two paper pieced rose blocks, a tea and coffee wall hanging, a twilling project and her completed paper pieced triangle log cabin quilt where she used prairie points for binding. Avery again was asked to draw numbers for prizes which were won by Bonnie Deiter, Lynda Feuerborn and Sandra Moffatt. The meeting was adjourned by President Mary.

by the RNC or anyone else, were struck down by a divided court with dissents from Trump's favorite justices: Scalia, Alito and Thomas.)

The RNC: "Much of the law Was Struck Down by the Supreme Court in 2012."

The New York Times: "Court Splits Immigration Law Verdicts; Upholds Hotly Debated Centerpiece, 8-0."

I'm sure any person of reasonable intelligence could confuse "unanimously upheld by the Supreme Court" with "struck down by the Supreme Court."

"Background: Kobach has advocated for use of a technicality within the Patriot Act, that would potentially force Mexico to 'pay for the wall' by holding hostage the millions of dollars that Mexican nationals in the U.S. send home to family each year."

Holding hostage? It's known as the Treasury Department's taxing authority.

Idea for the RNC's next policy paper: "The Trump administration advocates for use of a technicality within the law that would potentially force taxpayers to pay for government services by holding hostage trillions of dollars that Americans spend on their families each year."

The Kobach "background-er" is the equivalent of me writing the vetting documents for the Obama administration.

"CONTROVERSIES: Kobach Faced Criticism for Speaking at What Some Called a 'White Nationalist' Conference."

Holy moly! That's a blockbuster! I've followed Kobach's career for years, and I'm floored that the Harvard/Yale/Oxford graduate is consorting with "white supremacists."

Oh wait, I see. Here's the RNC's evidence:

"Kobach was a presenter at a writers workshop last week for The Social Contract Press, a publishing house that the Southern Poverty Law Center includes on its list of hate groups under the category

'anti-immigrant.'"

Anyone -- in media, in politics, in casual conversation around the water cooler, certainly anyone at the RNC! -- who cites the SPLC as anything other than "America's Leading Hate Group" needs to have his head examined. This is on the order of the NAACP using KKK literature to evaluate job applicants.

The RNC vetters are too stupid not to bury the SPLC's specific claim: that The Social Contract Press is guilty of being "anti-immigrant." I know the RNC hated Trump but the only reason the RNC even has a Republican president right now is that a plurality of Americans want less immigration, too.

"During the Campaign, Kobach's Opponent Tied Him to White Supremacist Groups."

Again with the "white supremacist groups"!

Guess who this time? Guess! FAIR -- the Federation for American Immigration Reform, a group concerned with ... yes, that would be the principal assignment of department for which Kobach was being considered: IMMIGRATION.

In fact, FAIR is a little namby-pamby on immigration, certainly compared to, for example, the Angel Moms, Bernie Sanders circa 2016, or -- I don't know -- THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES. If FAIR is a "white supremacist group," then Trump is the Grand Wizard of the KKK.

Who at the RNC wrote this document? I want their names and I want them killed. (Or forced to watch the Democratic debates -- their choice.)

More likely, the nitwit responsible for this Swamp Manifesto will be appointed Trump's new DHS Secretary.

Gene Raymond to be honored during Anderson County Fair

GARNETT – The Anderson County Fair Board will be honoring the late Gene Raymond during the 2019 Anderson County Fair. The fair board voted to name the livestock arena the “Gene Raymond Memorial Livestock Arena” at its April meeting. A brief ceremony will take place on Tuesday, July 30, prior to the Style Revue at approximately 7:45 p.m in the livestock arena. All fairgoers are welcome to attend.

Raymond

Gene Raymond, who passed away suddenly in January, was a passionate supporter of youth agriculture programs and a contributor to the county fair. His cheery nature and booming laughter were a constant presence during the fair for several decades. Gene consistently volunteered his time and resources to helping young agriculturalists improve their skills, both in and out of the livestock arena.

Many who knew Gene recall fondly how he would get down on every kid’s level and speak to him or her with respect. He made every kid feel like they were the most important and undoubtedly boosted the confidence and skills of countless young 4-Hers.

Outside of his county fair involvement, Gene was a well-respected cattleman, known throughout the U.S. He and his wife, Virginia, started GV Limousin in 1978 and built their cowherd to more than 400 females. Gene loved sharing information about breeding cattle and herd management with his fellow breeders, commercial cattlemen and Graham School students. Gene was a member of the North American Limousin Foundation, the Kansas Livestock Association Executive Committee, a two-time president of the Kansas Beef Council and served on the National Livestock and Meat Board for 16 years. He was inducted into the NALF Hall of Fame in July 2019.

The fair board felt that this honor was well deserved, as Gene had an immeasurable influence on the U.S. livestock industry. Friends of the Raymond family have funded a commemorative sign which will hang in the newly named arena to honor Gene Raymond’s impact on agriculture and 4-H.

Topics for discussion will be used to create a strategic plan for rural economic development and include, but are not limited to the following:

- Developing rural housing

- Revitalizing Main Street corridors
 - Investing in rural infrastructure
 - Supporting rural hospitals and medical professional recruitment
 - Making State Government work for rural Kansas
 - Incentivizing Active Tourism
 - Supporting Agribusiness
- Officials say an average of 100 residents have attended the meetings at four meetings previously held in June.

What is your relationship to the Lamb?

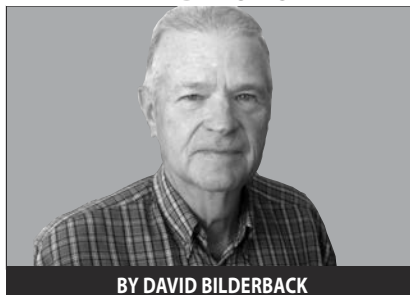

The entire Old Testament is a preparation for Christ. Dr. James Boice stated that the heart of the Old Testament was the exchange between Abraham and Isaac in Genesis 22. We read that God tested Abraham. God told Abraham to take his Son Issac whom he loved to the region of Moriah and sacrifice him as a burnt offering.

In Genesis 22:6-8 we read, Abraham took the wood for the burnt offering and placed it on his son Issac, and he himself carried the fire and the knife. As the two of them went on together, Issac spoke up and said to his father Abraham, “The fire and the wood are here but where is the lamb for the burnt offering?” Abraham answered, “God himself will provide the lamb for the burnt offering, my son.” And the two of them went on together.

Issac asks a profound question. Throughout the Old Testament animal sacrifice was linked to the coming Messiah. In the Garden of Eden one animal to one person. At Passover one lamb per family. On the day of atonement one goat for the whole nation.

Abraham offers an equally profound answer. “God himself will provide the lamb for the burnt offering.” In Genesis 22:13 we read, Abraham looked up and there in a thicket he saw a ram caught by its horns. He went over and took the ram and sacrificed it as a burnt offering instead of his son.

WEEKLY DEVOTIONAL

Abraham understood the sacrificial system. God had revealed to him that without the shedding of blood there was no forgiveness. Abraham told Issac that God would provide the lamb and God did. So how does this translate to your life and mine? In John 1:29 we read. The next day John saw Jesus coming toward him and said, “Look the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world.” Do you and I need a lamb? Yes we do, we need the lamb that John was referring to. In John 3:16, Jesus tells Nicodemus. “For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.”

Jesus represents a New Covenant. In Hebrews 7:27, we read. “Unlike the other high priests, he does not need to offer sacrifices day after day, first for his own sins and then for the rest of the people. He sacrificed for their sins once for all when he offered himself.”

Now if we don’t realize we are sinners we will feel no need for a Savior. In 1st John 1:8-10 we read, “If we claim to be without sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness. If we claim we have not sinned we make him out to be a liar and his word has no place in our lives.”

I have one more question? What is your relationship with the lamb?

"It is a position I feel would benefit everyone who uses the recreation center from the most experienced person looking for some new ideas on how to train to the complete novice who has never been to the recreation center before," Bures said. "Overall it would be something that we have never had the opportunity to have and with this person on staff we can do a lot more things for our members and community."

THE ANDERSON COUNTY REVIEW 190716 / STACEY DENNISON

Just 10 days after its newly-constructed building opened, the new Maple Street Liquors location on U.S. Highway 59 in Garnett was hit by a car last week after an apparent accelerator malfunction in the vehicle. Neither the staff nor the driver, Connie Setter of Garnett, were injured. Repairs were affected late last week.

Watershed structures and conservation practices help reduce flood damage

Extreme rainfall events of May 2019 brought severe flooding and property damage to many residents in central and eastern Kansas. Floodwaters also caused traffic disruptions, including the closure of north-bound lanes on the Kansas Turnpike. USDA Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS) employees have been surveying the damage from the record-setting rainfall events.

Despite the lowland flooding damage, NRCS engineers and conservationists determined if it hadn't been for the flood control structures installed by watershed district sponsors, flooding damages could have been much worse. NRCS models estimate that the federally assisted watershed dams built in Kansas helped prevent over $7.0 million in flooding damages from the May 6-8 storms, and $18.3 million for the May 20-21 storms.

Kansas NRCS State Conservationist, Karen A. Woodrich, said, "Over 50 years ago, NRCS worked with local landowners to construct structures to help reduce flooding damages. Those structures are still doing their job today."

NRCS, with assistance from watershed sponsors and in cooperation with private landowners, has constructed 830 flood control structures in Kansas through the Watershed Protection and Flood Prevention Act. These funds authorized NRCS to provide assistance with the planning and installation of flood control structures and in applying conservation practices. In addition to federally assisted watershed dams, the Kansas Department of Agriculture—Division of Conservation, has assisted with the construction of 550 additional watershed dams.

Flood control structures may easily go unnoticed across the landscape, but after a heavy rain event, like what was recently experienced in Kansas, these structures spring in to action. They capture rushing flood water and hold the water back allowing it to be slowly released downstream. Slowing the water down and allowing it to be gradually released reduces damage to roads, bridges, fences, cropland, and other property.

Kevin D. Gustafson, State Conservation Engineer for Kansas NRCS, added that when flood water is seen flowing around the end of a dam, it does not indicate a problem or that the dam has failed. In fact, this is exactly what they are designed to do during high rainfall events like we have seen the last couple of weeks.

With 1,380 watershed dams constructed statewide, benefits of the Watershed Protection and Flood Prevention Act include significant savings in soil erosion, water conservation, road and bridge damage reduction, wetland/upland wildlife habitat creation, and most importantly—saved lives and property.

For more information on installing conservation practices on your land to help prevent erosion and reduce flooding, contact your local NRCS office located in the USDA Service Center, or learn more at www.ks.nrcs.usda.gov.
