Garnett's birthday bash set Thursday

Free dinner, birthday cake, displays & live music will highlight town's 160th

BY DANE HICKS THE ANDERSON COUNTY REVIEW

GARNETT – Area residents will celebrate the 160th anniversary of Garnett's founding this Thursday with free food, birthday cake, music and displays of firefighting and emergency services equipment downtown.

The City of Garnett will host the event which begins at 5 p.m. at the Garnett Fire Station at 132 W. 4th Avenue.

"Everyone is invited to attend and enjoy hamburgers, chips, drinks, and birthday cake served by the Garnett Volunteer Fire Department with assistance from the Garnett City Commission and staff," said Garnett Community Development Director Susan Wettstein. She said the meal is complimentary but freewill donations can be dropped in a fire boot at the event with all proceeds going to the volunteer fire department.

The shin dig is a long way from the town's humble – and almost scuttled – beginnings 160 years ago.

Town company investors led by Louisville, Ky., physician and entrepreneur G.W. Cooper first picked a site in the geographic center of Anderson County – about three miles north of Welda – as a site for Garnett, but decided that site lacked adequate spring water and other natural resources, so they picked a point about six miles to the north just south of the Pottawatomie. The site was platted in 1857 and named after W. A. Garnett, the president of the town

Engines roar in vintage local racing event

BY DANE HICKS THE ANDERSON COUNTY REVIEW

GARNETT – Among the forced government and organizational shutdowns that came to define 2020 as decision makers reacted to Covid-19, the Lake Garnett Grand Prix Revival was one of the only publicly held events to go off pretty much as planned last year.

It was proof that despite everything from direct lockdowns to public shaming and paranoia, people still love cars – and at least some drivers like to go real fast.

The relatively new tradition of the Garnett Grand Prix Revival will take to Garnett's lake track again this weekend with a full slate of drivers, cars and exhibitions designed as tribute to the Garnett sports car races that enthralled the region and brought drivers and fans to Lake Garnett by the thousands some 60 years ago. As in the seven track events that preceded it, the 2021 Lake Garnett Grand Prix Revival will allow countless families and car enthusiasts the opportunity to witness vintage race cars, classic sports cars, and modern performance automobiles descend on Lake Garnett Park for a taste of local racing from yesterday.

The Revival has become one of the premier vintage and sports car events in the region, with a multi-day format that includes high-performance driving displays around the old 2.8 mile race track, the EKAE autocross at the Garnett Municipal Airport, the Hagerty Revival showcase car show in downtown Garnett, and a road tour & cruise. Onlookers will also get the chance to ride around the track in one of 40-different high-performance vehicles during the Charity Rides.

The track sessions will be diverse offering interest for all ranges of motor enthusiasts. A multitude of speed-regulated classes will allow drivers of every experience level to get some action behind the wheel of their own classic automobiles. See www.lggpr.org for registration to enter your car.

Kansas Republicans want a whoa on mandate

Petition would ask Kelly for special session to talk about vaccine mandate

BY DANEDRI HERBERT THE SENTINEL

TOPEKA – Three Kansas state senators and two state representatives are asking fellow lawmakers to petition Governor Laura Kelly for a special legislative session to address a federal vaccine mandate. Meanwhile, the Legislative Coordinating Council created a committee to address federal overreach related to a COVID vaccine mandate.

Sen. Mark Steffen, R-Hutchinson; Sen. Alicia Straub, R-Ellinwood; Sen. Mike Thompson, R-Shawnee; Rep. Trevor Jacobs, R-Fort Scott; and Rep. Tatum Lee, R-Ness City distributed a letter to lawmakers last night. In it, they ask legislators to return a signed, notarized petition signature urging the Governor to call a special session on Oct. 18.

During the special session, the five will introduce a Patriot's Freedom Bill.

Lawmakers seek to introduce freedom legislation

"Our constituents are demanding that their elected Representatives and Senators go back to Topeka for a special session for the purpose of nullifying President Biden's executive orders and passing additional legislation to protect the individual liberties of Kansans and ensure that Kansans aren't being forced to take vaccines or wear masks," the letter reads.

The draft bill prohibits vaccine mandates and statewide stay-at-home orders and restricts the government from closing churches.

Lee says Kansans deserve protection.

"We are living in an unprecedented time in our nation. The government is pushing mandates at an alarming rate," the letter reads. "From the White House to the county courthouse, we are witnessing mandates to vaccinate, mandates for masks, and now we are personally watching our friends, families, and neighbors losing their jobs because they choose personal liberty."

The legal issues surrounding vaccine mandates are tricky and vary based on who is attempting to implement a mandate.

Eric Stafford, vice president of government affairs at the Kansas Chamber of Commerce, earlier this year said the Chamber believes in the right of employers to determine their own policies for employees. He noted that the Americans with Disabilities Act allows employers to mandate vac-

The woman reached for Jesus!

WEEKLY DEVOTIONAL

BY DAVID BILDERBACK

Mother Teresa stands out as one of the greatest humanitarians of the 20th century and beyond. In spite of all of her vast accomplishments the following quote is attributed to her. "Where is my faith-even deep down in there is nothing, but emptiness and darkness-My God-how painful is this unknown pain-I have no faith-I dare not utter the words and thoughts that crowd in my heart and make me suffer untold agony."

God allows us to go through hard times so that we can learn to truly trust him. You see, when we do choose to trust God-even when there is no concrete evidence of his presence-we demonstrate real faith. And that is a powerful witness to anyone who sees.

In Luke 8:43-48; we read the story of the sick woman and Jesus. This woman had suffered from bleeding for twelve years, and no one could heal her. Jesus was in a crowd of people and we are told the crowds almost crushed him. The woman believing that Jesus could help her came up behind him and touched the edge of his cloak and immediately her bleeding stopped. What we need to note is the response of Jesus. "Who touched me?" Jesus asked.

The disciples stating the obvious said, "people are crowding and pressing against you." Jesus response was, "someone touched me; I know that power has gone out from me." We are told the woman came and fell at his feet and told Jesus why she had touched him and how she had been healed instantly. Jesus response, "Your faith has healed you. Go in peace."

All of us experience times in our life like Mother Teresa expressed. What we need to understand is our need for healing and push through the clutter and litter in our life and come as the woman did to Jesus. We can rest assured if we feel burdened and weary from life's struggles you and I need to receive the cleansing of the Savior. There are no limits to the power of Jesus except those we place on him by our own failure to place our faith in him. The solution to the problem is to reach for Jesus.

Cars will be on static display Saturday afternoon after 2 p.m. on the Garnett Square for the LGGPR Car Show.

Kansas City's Heartland Vintage Racing car club will ensure that everyone gets their fill of historic horsepower. Onlookers can expect to see vintage Corvettes, Shelby GT's, and Jaguars roaring around the lake, while the more agile Austin Healeys, Lotus Cortinas, and Triumphs carve up the challenging course.

The Garnett races started in 1959 and ended in 1972, but some 40-years later a small group of sports car enthusiasts from the region led by Claib Harris banded together to celebrate memories of the track and the automobiles that once raced there. In 2014, the first Lake Garnett Grand Prix Revival (LGGPR) was held, comprised of a track event, autocross, car show, and charity rides around the 2.8 mile road course which raise funds for charitable organizations around the area. Since then, the LGGPR has become known as one of the most fan-friendly and reasonably-priced events of its kind to attend, attracting more than 300 cars as well as thousands of participants and spectators. Spectator admission and parking is free, and the LGGPR group encourages families and car enthusiasts of all ages to come to celebrate these marvelous automobiles. For the schedule of events, covid-19 regulations, and more information, visit the website at www.lggpr.org.

company. From among five towns Cooper attempted to develop, Garnett was the only one that survives today.

But the fledgling town had to first withstand a political conflict over its certification with a local judge who himself supported another nearby townsite. Garnett supporters dug into the judge's background however, discovering he never actually qualified for the legal post anyway, and convinced the Territorial Governor to appoint a judge more sentimental to their desires. On October 7, 1861, the new judge granted the Garnett Town Company a legitimate recognition and certified the city as a bona fide town site.

Wettstein said a number of events would highlight Thursday's celebration:

"Bridges of Madison County" tour

Kay and I decided it was time to take another break, so the 23-24-25 of September, we did just that. We traveled with Heritage Tours out of Yoder, Ks. to Winterset, Iowa. Angie Bozeman, owner and operator of Heritage Tours, was our hostess/tour guide and Justin Straub was our bus driver.

Kay and I want to share our wonderful fall trip with you. The name of our trip was "Bridges of Madison County".

Our 1st day Thursday 23 September, We left Garnett at 10:10 a.m. Kay's sister drove us to Ottawa, where we boarded the bus at Loves Truck Stop. Our very first stop was at the Cracker Barrel in Liberty, Missouri for lunch. I noted while there the gas price of regular gas was $2.78. Soon we were on our way to Iowa. The road-sides were literally covered with blooming golden rods, sunflowers and purple asters. We crossed into Iowa at 3:15 p.m. Acres and acres of corn, but very little being harvested. They really need rain in Southern Iowa. Most of their soybeans are only 4-6" tall and leaves yellow and falling. No pods to be seen.

At 3:45 p.m. we stopped for a short break at a nice rest area near Osceola, Iowa.

We arrived at 4:45 p.m. at the Cobblestone Inn in Winterset, our home for the next two nights.

At 5:15 p.m. we drove out to the Henry A Wallace County Life Center for a sit down dinner and tour. Their gardens were large and beautiful. Tomatoes of every variety. They were picking an average of 100 pounds per day. There were rows and rows of peppers and Blue Lake beans.

What really fascinated me was their corn test plots. From Yellow Dent to a variety created in 2014. This variety set an unbelievable world production record of 614 bushel per acre in Nebraska. This corn grows over six feet tall and has 3-4 large ears per stalk.

At 8:30 p.m. we returned to our motel for a good night's sleep, as tomorrow would be another very busy day for us.

Respectfully submitted by:
Henry Roeckers. 28Sept2021

NEWS FLASH

Come attend the next meeting of the Anderson County Historical Society to be held 7Oct.2021 at the Anderson County Museum.

Potluck dinner at 6:30 p.m. -Business Meeting and program at 7:00 p.m. Learn the history and see a slide presentation of one of Anderson County's early rock school houses. It's my night for the program.

Henry Roeckers, amateur archaeologist, to present at Historical Society Oct. 7

Henry's experience in "uncovering" artifacts spans 60 years. He began in 1961 with a metal detector. He joined the Kansas Anthropological Association, "a comprehensive program that guides the amateur archeologist in personal study and achievement". In Anderson County, he has excavated up to 20 different sites, mostly on private properties under the encouragement of the landowner who usually retains all items found. The Historical Society Museum is fortunate to have a few collections.

When asked which one artifact or place has the most significance for the history of Anderson County, he seemed reluctant to pinpoint just one. The location of the general store where the town of Scipio was "first" located was exciting. His work at Hyatt, one of our many ghost towns, went on for 3-5 years. More than half of that time, he was able to excavate much of the city including the hotel, blacksmith shop, school and a couple of houses on one side of the road. He then moved to the other side. He said there is much more work that could be done there, as well as at many other locations.

Henry enjoys doing walking surveys -looking for items on the ground. He's been fortunate to find two rare artifacts. A Paleo point, found southwest of Garnett, would date between 8000 and 13,500 years before the present time in Kansas. The second item is a rare small turtle carved out of white flint. The turtle is the effigy of the Pottawatomie Tribe.

Henry says what he really likes about his work is the research side. Finding an unknown object and digging into books, the internet, etc, to discover what it could be. If you would like to hear about Henry's current project, please join us for our Monthly Potluck and meeting on Thursday, Oct. 7th at the Museum (Longfellow School Building). We start at 6:30 with potluck food (bring a side dish, plates and tableware) followed by a short business meeting. If you'd like to come only for the presentation, plan on being there by 7:00 p.m.

THE ANDERSON COUNTY REVIEW 10-5-2021 / DANE HICKS

Crest Lancer running back Harrison Barker stretches for a first down Friday night in the game against Waverly. The Lancer's couldn't muster a defensive effort against the Bulldogs and fell 50-14.

Vikings pull away late in win over Horton

RICHMOND - It was a perfect night for football last Friday as the Central Heights Vikings hosted Horton in a homecoming showdown and after trailing at halftime, the Vikings would prevail 33-20.

Central Heights jumped on the scoreboard first with a first quarter touchdown to lead 7-0 heading into the second.

Horton pulled even with around 11 minutes remaining in the second quarter as they pounded it in from one yard out to knot the score at 7.

Horton would tack on a touchdown late in the second quarter with a minute to play to take a 14-7 lead into intermission. Central Heights quarterback Tony Detwiler would break free for a 35 yard score midway through the third period, but after a failed conversion the Vikings still trailed 14-13.

Detwiler would connect up with Baker Moore for a passing touchdown with a minute to go in the third, giving the Vikings a 20-14 lead heading into the fourth.

Horton would garner all the momentum with a 60 yard touchdown pass and reception with 11 minutes left, tying the game at 20 after their extra point failed.

Central Heights would regain control just a few moments later as Detwiler broke free for a 48 yard touchdown to give the Vikings a 27-20 lead.

After a defensive stand, Detwiler would score his 5th touchdown on the night, this time from 51 yards out to give his Vikings a 33-20 lead, which would be the final.

Four of those scores would come on the ground as Detwiler amassed 264 yards on 19 carries.

Defensively Carson Wood tallied 12 tackles, including 5.5 tackles for loss, 2 forced fumbles and 3 sacks.

Vikings boys & girls both finish 2nd

With impending thunderstorms in the area, simply getting the races in on our home course seemed like a long shot an hour before the meet was supposed to start.

"Thanks to a perfect combination of cloud cover, a cool breeze and some fantastic preparation this week, our kids put in some more of their best performances of the season," Coach Troy Prossor stated.

These bests included 15 personal bests resulted in 14 individual medals with the top highlight clearly being the 1st place finish in the varsity boys race by Connor Burkdoll.

"It's no secret that Connor is a fantastic runner and he loves finding new things to motivate himself week in and week out. Along with his other four teammates, the boys were able to bring a 2nd place finish as a group that was a nice boost heading into the last week of the regular season," Prossor added.

"Not to be outdone, Emma, Taryn, Melaney, and Lily once again paced the girls by all placing in the top 10 finishing a mere three points behind a top 5 ranked team in 3A," Prossor pointed out.

The middle schoolers were equally impressive with a slew of personal bests, an individual title for Hunter Johnson (7th grade) and a 2nd place finish by Aydan Dunbar (8th grade).

"Probably the thing that pleased me the most about the overall performance was the sheer amount of grit, determination, and support they gave each other throughout

Iola downs Bulldogs

IOLA - ACHS took a 7-0 lead early in the second quarter as Fisher Galey broke free for an 83 yard touchdown.

Iola responded with a 28 yard scoring strike through the air on their ensuing possession.

After a defensive stand, Iola once again hit paydirt, this time a 56 yard touchdown pass put Iola up 14-7 with just under 3 minutes left in the first half.

Iola scored within the first 4 minutes of the second half to take a 22-7 advantage, which would balloon to 34-7 by game's end.

The Bulldogs struggled all night offensively as they would fail to score after having the early lead.

THE ANDERSON COUNTY REVIEW 10-5-2021 / SUBMITTED

Each of the Westphalia Junior high science classes begin their year learning about the Engineering Design Process. And each of the classes has a concluding project to show what they have learned. In sixth grade, we learn about how bicycle helmets are designed to protect the human head from injury should a person fall off their bike. The students are then tasked with building a protective device that keeps an egg from cracking when dropped from three different heights. Most of the students' designs survived 2 out of the three drops. Which is very impressive. This year Carly's "Egg Helmet" was the only one to survive the dreaded third drop. Congratulations Carly on the winning design! Pictured Left to right - Carly Edgecomb & Mrs. Long.

MANDATE...

inations. The federal Equal Employment Opportunity Commission does the same.

But many legal scholars say having the federal government mandate that employers require vaccinations is a constitutional violation.

State law requires 2/3rds of legislature to force Governor's hand

State law requires the governor to call a special session when properly petitioned by the legislature. And a petition signed by two-thirds of the legislature forces her hand, according to the Kansas Constitution.

Republicans make up two-thirds of the Kansas Legislature, but that doesn't mean the petition is a slam dunk. Special sessions are rare in Kansas. Since 1972, only six occurred, all called by the Governor.

The letter requests that the Governor call a special session even if the petition falls short of the necessary signatures. Released late on a Sunday evening, it appears the effort gained immediate steam. Within a few hours of Lee announcing the letter on social media, her post garnered more than 90 shares on Facebook.

She says that's because Kansans are hurting.

"They are losing jobs, and this is serious," she said. "Tyranny is running amuck in our country and in our state, and we in Kansas know better. Our constituents deserve to be protected. They deserve their personal choices to be protected, including their healthcare."

Committee will examine federal overreach on vaccine mandate

The petition reached lawmakers on Sunday night. The following morning, the Legislative Coordinating Council met and authorized an 11-person special committee on government overreach.

Senate President Ty Masterson, a Wichita Republican, said Monday's meeting was not a response to the letter.

"We have some new members that are energetic. There's a lack of understanding... Even if we had a special session, we would have committee meetings. It's a little bit cart-in-front-of-the horse," Masterson said.

Masterson will appoint five Senators to the committee, and the Kansas House Speaker Ron Ryckman will appoint six state representatives to the committee. Members will study federal overreach, including the Biden administration's announced vaccine mandate.

"Everybody wants to help our citizens right now...to make sure that these overreaching mandates can be handled lawfully," Ryckman said. "I like this approach."

Time runs short for employees opposed to taking COVID vaccine

Thompson, a Shawnee Republican, is one of the lawmakers spearheading the petition for a special session.

"This call for action has reached a crescendo with President Biden's executive order to mandate vaccines," Thompson wrote in a Facebook post. "For many, time is running out as their deadline for vaccination approaches."

He also supports the LCC's efforts.

"I fully support this effort and believe it will set the framework for legislation that is desperately needed to protect Kansans," his Facebook post reads. "Those who wish to get the vaccine already have access to it. But those who are not comfortable with taking the jab have rights, too. And they have been ignored for too long."

Spirit of Christmas Committee disbanding

The Spirit of Christmas Countywide Committee is disbanding. With the Covid pandemic in 2020 it created changes for our committee as well as all other entities. The Spirit of Christmas has been around a great many years and as a countywide committee since 2008.

We want to take this opportunity to thank Anderson Countians for their generosity. Not just the businesses, organizations and individuals for your monetary gifts but also the toy drives and collections boxes. Our angel trees have given the community and families in general an opportunity to feel the magic of sharing with complete strangers. We will miss that.

We especially want to thank those folks, primarily behind the scenes, for their work and commitment in making the Spirit of Christmas a true community effort. From the church that let us use their facility for pack up and distribution days, the high school group that decorated the angels, the business that provided a truck and driver, the wrestlers who loaded and unloaded food stuff and last but not least, the grade school students who provided the energy to help on packing and distribution days. It is our hope, that these people realize there are many, many ways to contribute to make an event successful. Sharing your time and talents with those around you goes without measure.

If you and your family are in need this Christmas season, please contact ECKAN, 132 E. 5th, Garnett, Ks. If you would like to help, monetary donations can also be given to ECKAN.

Thank you again for the memories.

Spirit of Christmas Countywide Committee:
Kay Adams, Rae Ann Johnson, Linda Kipper, Bonnie and Donnie Lile, Dorothy Miller, Butch and Sharon Rocker, Nancy Rockers and Connie Thompson
